ABSTRACT

A project of the State College Area School District (Pennsylvania) to increase the self-confidence and independence of limited-English-proficient adult students is reported. Students learned to ask questions for information, give directions, read maps and bus schedules, and plan trips using local resources and a Pennsylvania state visitor's guide. The program has been found helpful in increasing student confidence in English, improving knowledge of the community and state, and easing the transition from a foreign culture to American life. Several documents are included here: a project summary, instructor's manual, student workbook, and a state-produced visitor's guide used for instruction in the program. The summary report describes briefly the project's rationale and origins, purposes and objectives, schedule, administration, intended audience, and information dissemination efforts. Specific project objectives (curriculum development, piloting, inservice teacher education event, and final report) and related activities are outlined and evaluation activities are detailed. The instructor's manual contains outlines, instructional materials, and planning materials for the 12 lessons in the curriculum. The student's workbook contains lesson materials worksheets for those lessons. (MSE) (Adjunct ERIC Clearinghouse on Literacy Education)

PURPOSE:

To develop and implement a curriculum which would increase language skills to foster self-confidence and independence in English as a Second Language (ESL) students and in Adult Basic and Literacy Education students while acquainting them until local and state resources.

PROCEDURES:

The course was piloted with ESL students. Students learned to ask questions for information, give directions, read maps and bus schedules, and to plan trips using local resources and the PA Visitor's Guide.

SUMMARY OF FINDINGS:

A majority of students reported that their confidence in speaking and knowledge of their state and community increased.

COMMENTS:

The program provides practical, helpful information to ESL students easing the transition from foreign culture to American life. Lessons are also adaptable to ABLE students.

PRODUCTS:

DISCOVER PA Student Workbook
DISCOVER PA Instructor's Manual

DESCRIPTORS:

I. INTRODUCTION

A. Rational and Background:

Adult literacy instruction, whether targeted at Adult Basic and Literacy Education (ABLE) or English As A Second Language (ESL) students, has proven to be most effective when education material and language skills are integrated with practical material. Life skills such as asking for information, making travel arrangements, giving directions, reading maps, and planning trips of interest enable these students to make use of the wealth of resources and activities available to them locally and throughout the state.

The DISCOVER PA curriculum has proven to be especially beneficial to the ESL student. When international students come to an English speaking environment they have two needs: 1) to learn English communication skills and 2) to adapt and feel comfortable in a new environment. They require a curriculum that is both instructive and practical.

The DISCOVER PA curriculum supplements the PA Visitors Guide combining language skills with specific, practical application, thereby encouraging students to discover and participate in their new surroundings. The ultimate goal of this curriculum is to enable ABLE/ESL students to feel more confident about their communication skills and to realize that they possess the skills to successfully expand their learning opportunities.

B. Purposes/Objectives:

Objective 1: Develop an ABLE curriculum that focuses on reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills to supplement the PA Visitors Guide.

Objective 2: Pilot the course content of DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA with at least fifty international students.

Objective 3: Present an overview of DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA curriculum to the SCASD ABLE staff. The coordinator will present the results of the pilot study and show how the curriculum could be adapted to all ABLE classrooms.

Objective 4: Prepare a final report and products of the piloted curriculum, DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA.

C. Time Schedule

July - August 1993

- develop the curriculum including a Student Workbook and Instructor's Manual

September 1993 - April 1994

- pilot the program with approximately fifty ESL students
- complete the course evaluation
- present a workshop to other ABLE/ESL instructors

May - June 1994

- make final revisions to the Student Workbook and the Instructor's Manual
- print copies of materials for dissemination
- prepare the final report

D. Administration

Vickie McIntyre, an ESL instructor in the SCASD Adult Basic and Literacy Education (ABLE) Program, created the curriculum which included both a student workbook and a detailed instructor's manual.

M. Margaret Welliver, Coordinator of the SCASD ABLE Program, supervised the project by monitoring progress, preparing the fiscal reports, and editing the final products.

Barbara Wetzel, an ESL instructor, piloted the program with a group of ESL students in the fall of 1993 and in the spring of 1994. She edited the materials and prepared the final report.

E. Intended Audience

The DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA program was developed for adult learners in ABLE classes, specifically international students enrolled in Level III ESL classes provided by the State College Area School District.

F. Dissemination

The project Final Report, the Student Workbook, and the Instructor's Manual will be available for dissemination through:

Bureau of Adult Basic and Literacy Education
Pennsylvania Department of Education
333 Market Street
Harrisburg PA 17126-0333

Permanent copies of the project will be available at:

1. Advance
Pennsylvania Department of Education
1-800-446-5607
2. Western Pennsylvania Adult Literacy Resource Center
(WPALRC) 1-800-446-5607

If invited, the director of DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA will be available to present an overview of the curriculum at Mid-Winter PAACE Conference.

II. OBJECTIVES/ACTIVITIES

Each of the project objectives is followed by a description of activities.

Objective 1: To develop an ABLE curriculum titled DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA to supplement the PA Visitor's Guide.

1. Contact 1-800-VISIT-PA to obtain resources
2. Develop activities to supplement the PA Visitors Guide
3. Develop pre and post tests appropriate to content
4. Develop evaluation forms
5. Research available video resources and possible guest speakers
6. Prepare instructional packets of student materials (activities, worksheets, etc.) for printing
7. Plan and schedule trips to the local Chamber of Commerce, library, and Department of Parks and Recreation
8. Prepare an Instructor's Manual to accompany the curriculum

Objective 2: To pilot the course content of DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA to at least fifty international students.

1. Publicize registration
2. Organize registrants into two groups for presentation during the Fall and Winter terms
3. Implement the curriculum during the two hour classes, twice a week, for six weeks
4. Pre and post test participants
5. Collect evaluations

Objective 3: Present an overview of the DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA curriculum to ABLE staff at a local inservice event.

1. Invite ESL staff of SCASD Community Education to an inservice workshop
2. Present DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA for staff evaluation and evaluate for future use

Objective 4: Prepare a final report of the piloted curriculum.

1. Prepare a final report of the curriculum and activities of DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA
2. Provide the Pennsylvania Department of Education and Advance with copies of the final report and products

III. PROCEDURES

A. General Design

The DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA curriculum was developed, assembled, and duplicated. The student workbook was designed to supplement the PA Visitors Guide. Fifty copies were printed for the project and the remainder are available to the SCASD ABLE programs for future distribution.

B. Registration and Implementation

Two groups of students were registered. At a general registration for the fall ESL classes, students were screened to determine that they were functioning on an advanced-intermediate level. The DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA fall pilot course was offered twice a week for two hours each for six weeks. The winter class consisted of students who were enrolled in the Level III evening class during the fall term. This pilot course met for two hours once a week for twelve weeks.

Each class involved activities requiring all four language skills: listening, reading, writing, and speaking. The instructor covered a list of vocabulary words and provided reading exercises which involved higher level thinking skills as well as small group conversational problem solving.

Students began the project by getting to know each other and their immediate community. After studying local maps and learning direction-oriented terminology, students traveled to different agencies such as the Chamber of Commerce, Department of Parks and Recreation, International Hospitality Council, and the library to collect brochures and information for future class field trips.

Students then applied the skills used locally to study the entire state of Pennsylvania, utilizing the instructional resource packet and free state material as texts. The final sessions involved making plans for a short day trip to a location that the students chose. They were responsible for making all necessary plans, including arranging transportation, estimating costs, and making reservations. Student evaluations were collected prior to the trip.

C. Location

Fall term classes were held at the Nittany Community Center, Pennsylvania State University. Winter term classes were held at the High School South Building, State College Area School District.

IV. EVALUATION

A. A general oral interview, developed by the SCASD ESL program, was administered to place students in the appropriate upper intermediate to advance level for participation in the DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA course.

B. A teacher-designed evaluation form was completed by eleven students at the end of the fall prior program. (A summary is provided in Appendix A) The evaluation was not given at the end of the winter term because of irregular attendance due to many class cancellations caused by extreme winter weather.

V. COMMENTS AND CONCLUSIONS

A. Comments

The DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA program has proven to be a valuable tool for use in increasing students' familiarity with their immediate community as well as their state. Students' objective responses on the evaluation form and attitude as expressed to and observed by their instructor indicate a satisfaction with the materials presented.

In evaluating the difference between the fall and winter term classes the following conclusions were reached:

1. In its totality DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA is the best presented to a group of newly arrived internationals. Lessons 2-4 certainly had greater utility to the fall group of students, most of whom were newly arrived in State College. Continuing ESL students in the winter term had already acquainted themselves with the community, so the lessons designed to teach reading maps and bus schedules were already known to them. It was interesting to note that in the evaluation even the newer students reported those chapters as the least helpful. From these responses plus personal observations, it can be surmised that highly functioning, highly educated students do not need the structure of these practical lessons, and that these lessons might be more useful to lower level ABLE students.
2. Presentation of the lesson twice a week for two hours each had the advantage of allowing greater continuity than the once a week format used in the winter term. However, as the evaluations reflect, this did not allow sufficient opportunity for the instruction of the more traditional areas requested by ESL students: grammar, idioms, conversational techniques (such as making introductions, apologies, appointments, etc.), and listening and pronunciation drills.

Because the second pilot class was held during the winter, the class was plagued by cancellations and poor attendance due to the extreme weather. This prevented the continuity desired in both the DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA program and the ESL PROGRAM the students were attending on the second scheduled weekly class night. Therefore, it was difficult to access whether this alternate format allowed students to enjoy and benefit from both the DISCOVER program and the traditional instruction.

B. Recommendations

Since the DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA curriculum seeks to increase language skills through practical information acquainting students with their community and because it includes two field trips, it is recommended that the program be offered in the spring, summer, or early fall, preferably to international students who have just arrived in the community.

A second approach to using DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA, discussed and supported by ABLE staff at the inservice meeting, is to select specific lessons to be used alone. It was agreed that the lessons on how to use maps, bus schedules, and the telephone book as a resource would be valuable to advanced beginner or intermediate ESL students as well as to other ABLE students. The other lessons based upon the PA Visitors Guide could also be used one by one, but with intermediate to advanced students. It is likely that this second approach will be incorporated as part of the ABLE program of the SCASD Community Education.

DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA INSTRUCTOR'S MANUAL

INTRODUCTION

The DISCOVER PENNSYLVANIA curriculum is composed of twelve lessons that integrate reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills. The lessons include practical knowledge concerning how to understand and use the resources, facilities, and opportunities for educational and cultural growth available in the community. In addition to worksheets, role-playing exercises, and vocabulary drills, the curriculum uses the PA VISITORS GUIDE, which is available by calling 1-800-VISIT-PA.

Lessons 1-4 involve the local community, getting to know neighbors, how to locate important places, and how to use the local telephone directory. Lessons 5-12 involve learning more about the entire state of Pennsylvania. A Copy of the 1994 PA VISITORS GUIDE which is used as reading material throughout the course is provided.

Although the curriculum is designed for any Adult Basic and Literacy Education (ABLE) classroom, the Instructor's Manual is specifically written for the ESL teacher who will need to spend more time on vocabulary, cultural differences, general history, and American customs. The VOCABULARY/CONCEPTS and CULTURE KEY sections are part of each lesson plan.

The exercises and materials which are marked with a ■ in the Instructor's Manual are taken from the Student Workbook.

The goal of the DISCOVER PA curriculum is to teach practical skills that will enable students to participate in and interact confidently in their local community, as well as the larger community of the state.

So, put on a smile, grab your sunglasses, put a little gas in the car, and prepare to learn something new about your community and Pennsylvania. You just may discover that your region of the state has many more interesting attractions and exciting events than you ever imagined!

LESSON #1

FOCUS: GETTING TO KNOW ONE'S NEIGHBORS

COMMUNICATION SKILLS:

1. How to start a conversation
2. How to ask for information about another person
3. How to Introduce people
4. How to give information about oneself

VOCABULARY/CONCEPTS:

expectations neighbors newcomer first impressions rural/urban international vs.
foreigner city/country/small town

FORMAT:

1. Introduce yourself to the class and share typical information used in introductions such as family details, years of teaching, etc.
2. Divide the class into pairs and have them interview one another, taking notes if necessary. Each partner will then introduce the other partner to the class. The teacher will provide the model for proper introductions and polite responses to introductions.
3. Discuss nonverbal clues to language and how they can be or have been used by class members to facilitate conversations.
4. Divide the class into groups of four and ask each group to generate a list of four things everyone enjoys doing and four things everyone dislikes doing. Share highlights from lists.
5. Discuss the term "expectations." Make a list of the students' expectations of State College before arriving here and whether their expectations have been fulfilled.
6. Talk about the limited and broad meanings of the word "neighbor" and discuss strategies to get to know one's neighbors better.
7. Discuss stereotypes and labels such as "foreigner" and "internationals." How do students feel about their own identities, including fears or expectations about whether Americans will accept their backgrounds, nationalities, religions, etc. (ABLE classes could discuss possible ways to reach out to various ethnic groups within their community.)

8. ■ Complete the Introduction Exercise using a time limit to see who can learn the most about other students.

ASSIGNMENT:

Ask each student to write a brief description of their neighborhood, mentioning what they like and dislike. (ABLE students might write about what they would like to change about their neighborhoods.)

MATERIALS:

1. World map
2. Local map

CULTURAL KEY:

When asked, "What nationality are you?", immigrants may reply: "I'm Chinese-American," or "I'm Mexican-American."

Many ESL students might be concerned or confused about what topics are "safe" to discuss in a group and which topics are considered to be impolite or embarrassing.

LESSON 1

GETTING TO KNOW ONE'S NEIGHBORS

Introduction Exercise

To complete this exercise, interview your classmates to find out whose names can be used in the appropriate blanks. Do not use a name more than two times.

Find someone:

1. Who has a birthday in January? _____
2. Who has more than two children? _____
3. Who likes hamburgers? _____
4. Who doesn't like chocolate ice cream? _____
5. Who knows how to play the piano? _____
6. Who has been to Disneyworld? _____
7. Whose favorite color is green? _____
8. Who speaks Spanish? _____
9. Who drives a blue car? _____
10. Who got married in June? _____
11. Who has never been to New York City? _____
12. Who is athletic? _____
13. Who knows how to type? _____
14. Who is left-handed? _____
15. Whose hometown is smaller than State College? _____

LESSON #2

FOCUS: GETTING TO KNOW ONE'S COMMUNITY

COMMUNICATION SKILLS:

1. How and where to find information about one's community
2. How to ask for and give directions and locations of buildings.
3. How to describe one's neighborhood
4. How to get a person's attention politely
5. How to use and understand maps

VOCABULARY/CONCEPTS:

across from	around the corner	between next to	nearby	a block atmosphere	accessible	brochure
township	borough	county
city vs town vs country	quality of living

FORMAT:

1. ■ Prepare and give a pre-test on the city or county in which you are teaching. (Centre County Trivia is included as a pre-test.) After the pre-test, discuss the answers.
2. Divide the class into small groups. Ask them to compare and contrast the cities they came from with their new environment. Instruct each group to make lists noting such things as tourist attractions, atmosphere, conveniences, cost of living, and safety. (For ABLE classes a writing assignment such as Three Things I Like Most About State College is appropriate.)
3. Explain various situations where strangers might ask for information: someone new to the area wanting a recommendation for a good restaurant, someone who is lost, someone who wants to know the time, etc. Present a typical dialogue exchange for the class and role-play some possible situations where they have to ask for information or give information. Example:

"Excuse me, could you please tell me where I might find a good restaurant that I can walk to?"

"Yes. The Corner Room is good and it's only a few blocks from here. Go to the next intersection and turn

4. Introduce terms such as intersection, block, alley, heading east, make a right turn.
5. ■ Complete the State College and PSU Campus Map Exercises as a class or small group activity.
6. Refer to the map of Centre County. Have students highlight places of interest to them. Discuss these places.

ASSIGNMENT:

■ Explain the use of brochures and how they can be obtained from various sources within the community. Refer to page 9 of the student workbook for the list of places that offer free information. Assign small groups to visit these locations to select samples of materials to be used for planning class field trips.

MATERIALS:

1. Local maps are usually provided free by the Chamber of Commerce

CULTURAL KEY:

List and discuss organizations that can help community members learn more about the area in which they live.

EXTRA ACTIVITIES:

Play a game about your community similar to Penn State Monopoly or Penn State Trivia. If no games are available, create your own version of Jeopardy or Scattergories adapting it to knowledge about your community.

LESSON 2

GETTING TO KNOW ONE'S COMMUNITY

Centre County Trivia

True or False?

1. Centre County is home to America's only all-water cavern.

2. State College is nicknamed "Lion Country" because many mountain lions once lived in this area. _____
3. Artifacts belonging to Christopher Columbus are housed in the Columbus Chapel in Boalsburg. _____
4. Boalsburg is known as the birthplace of Labor Day.

5. Penn State was once known as the Farmers' High School.

6. Approximately 25,000 students attend Penn State as full-time students. _____
7. The climate in Centre County is not suited for vineyards and wineries. _____
8. Centre County is so named because it lies in the geographic center of the state. _____
9. The Centre Region's population including students is over 100,000. _____
10. The coal industry attracted many settlers to this area in the late 1700's. _____
11. Thirty percent of the land in Centre County is developed.

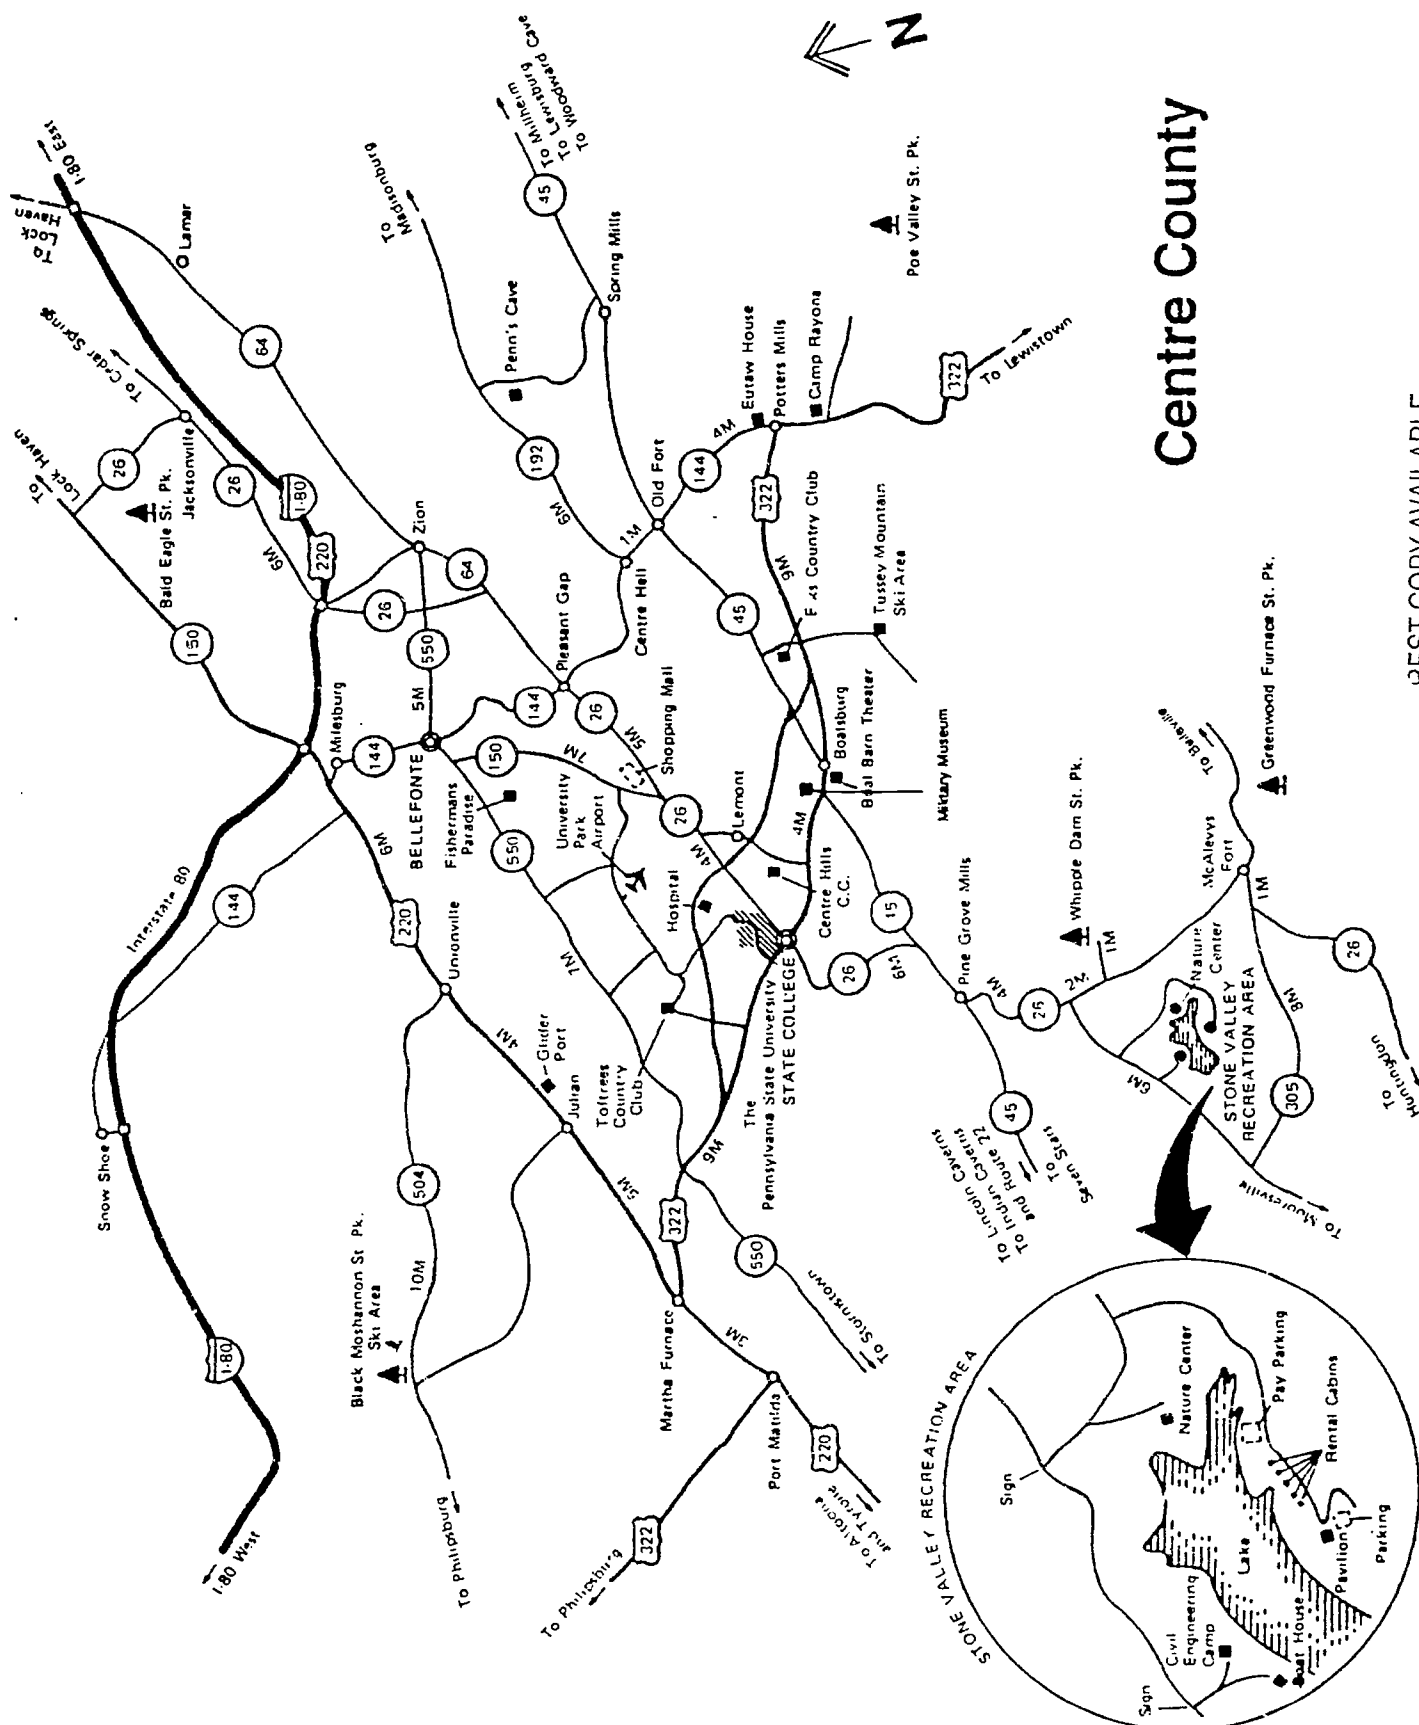

12. The first white man to discover Centre County was General Patton in 1759. _____
13. The Centre Region is comprised of the Borough of State College and the five surrounding townships. _____
14. About 60% of Penn State's population is Caucasian.

15. State College is the county seat. _____

CENTRE COUNTY TRIVIA

ANSWER KEY

1. TRUE - Penn's Cave is the only all-water cave in the U.S.A.
2. FALSE - The nickname comes from Penn State's mascot, the Nittany Lion.
3. TRUE - The artifacts were brought here in 1909 by a niece of Christopher Columbus who married Theodore Davis Boal.
4. FALSE - It is known as the birthplace of Memorial Day which is a holiday at the end of May. The first celebration was in 1864 when residents of the historic town walked to the cemetery and placed flowers on the graves of fallen soldiers.
5. TRUE - PSU was originally the Farmer's High School, founded in 1855 to teach soil conservation. It was renamed the Agricultural College of PA in 1862, changed to the Pennsylvania State College in 1874 and became the Pennsylvania State University in 1953.
6. FALSE - Over 40,000 students were registered in 1993. Penn State is also the largest employer in the Centre Region.
7. FALSE - Centre County has two wineries: Kollin Vineyards & Winery (Rt 550) and Mt Nittany Vineyard (Rt 45).
8. TRUE - Centre County lies in the center of the state; State College is in the southern portion of Centre County.
9. TRUE - The combined population of residents and students in the Centre Region is approximately 125,000.
10. FALSE - It was the iron industry that attracted many settlers to this area in the late 1700's. Centre Furnace was constructed by Col. John Patton and blasting operations began in 1792. Today the ironmaster's mansion serves as the headquarters of the Centre County Historical Society.
11. FALSE - Actually, only 10% of the land in Centre County is developed. 90% of the land is forest or farmland.
12. FALSE - The first white man to discover Centre County was General James Potter in 1759. Once the home to several Indian tribes, Centre County was viewed for the first time by Potter while he was on top of Nittany Mountain. It was there that he declared, "By God, I've discovered an empire!"
13. TRUE - The five townships include: College, Halfmoon, Harris, Patton, and Ferguson.
14. FALSE - About 90% of PSU's population is Caucasian. The rest of the population is: 3% African, 1% Hispanic, 4% Asian, and 1% Native American.
15. FALSE - The county seat is Bellefonte.

State College Map Exercise

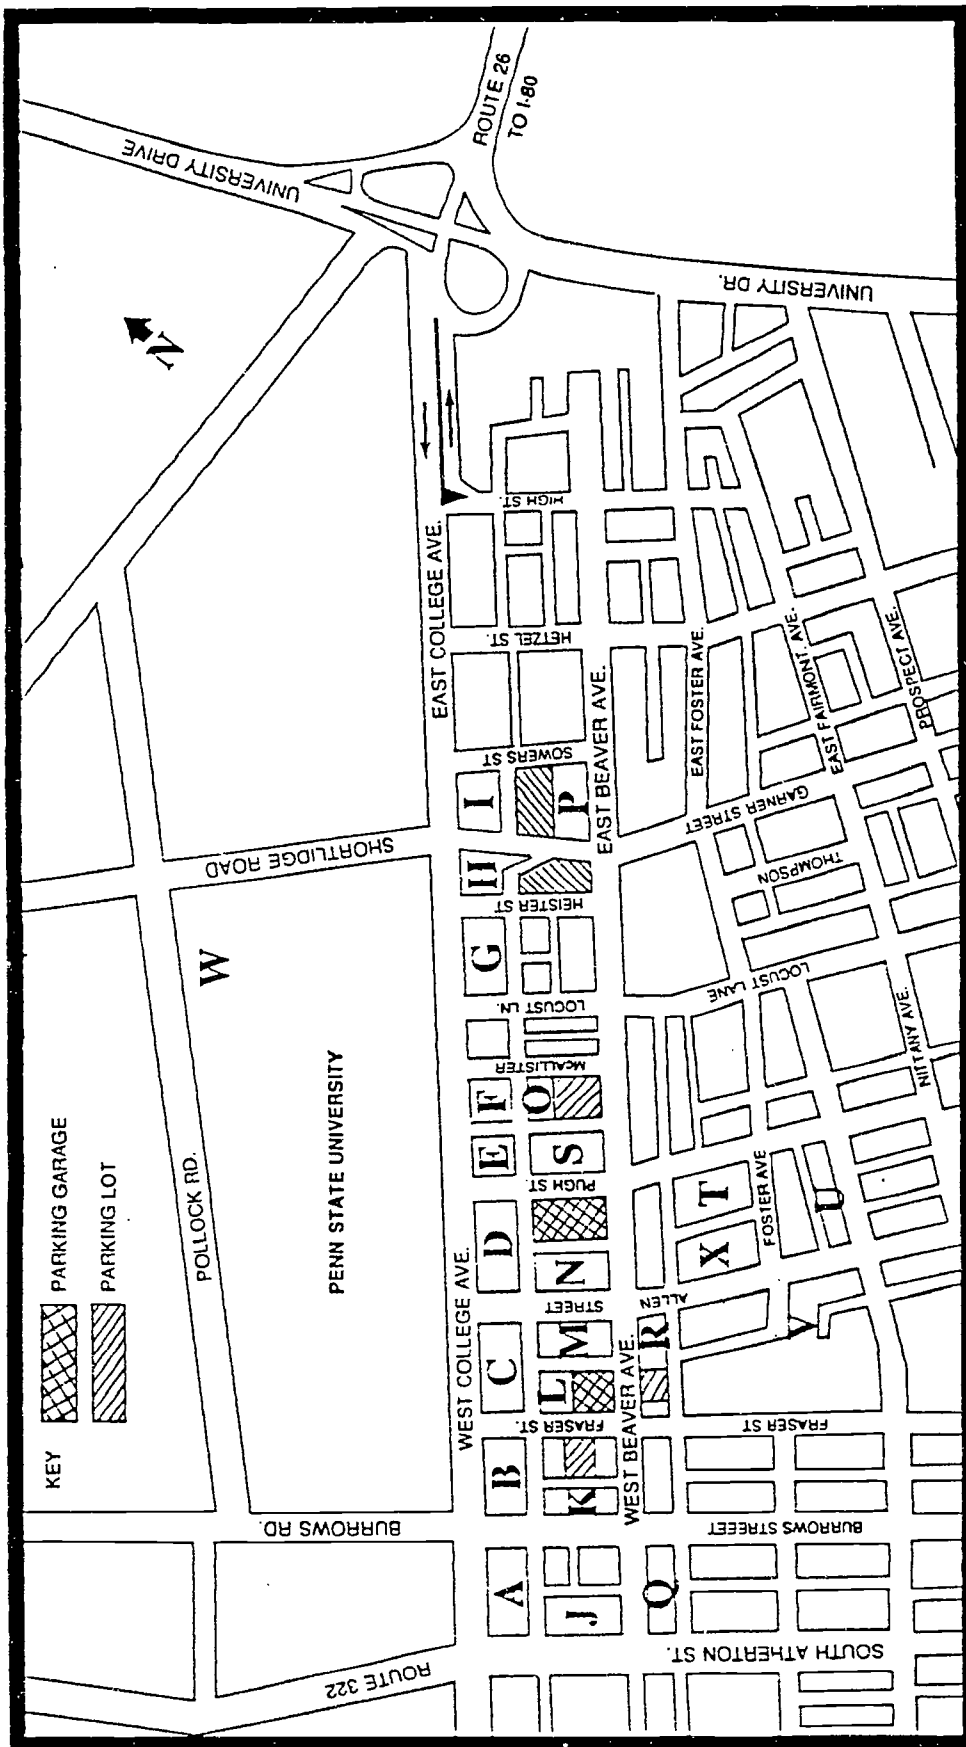

1. You are on Prospect Avenue and someone asks you how to get to West College Avenue. What will you tell them? What might you ask them?
2. What is building M and how do you get there from building P? Where will you park?
3. If you start at building U and go one block heading east, turn left, go three blocks and then turn right, what street are you on?
4. How many parking lots are in the downtown area? What is the symbol for a parking lot and where do you find that information?
5. What buildings might you go to if you wanted to open a checking account?
6. What direction are you heading if you start at building W and go to building V? What are buildings W and V?
7. What are professional buildings and how many are on the map?
8. Someone stops and asks for directions. Give detailed directions according to the details below and include parking information:
 - a) Someone wants to get from V to I.
 - b) Someone wants to get from W to N.
 - c) Someone needs to get to T from F but Pugh Street and Allen Street are closed due to construction.
 - d) Someone is at R and needs to get to the hospital immediately.
9. What is the DBA?
10. What does the word keyed mean in the following statement:
"Members are keyed by letters on the map."
What is the difference between a key and are keyed?

STATE COLLEGE MAP EXERCISE

ANSWER KEY

1. Make a left onto Hetzel Street, go four blocks and turn left. (Questions--What building are you looking for? or Where are you going on College Avenue?)
3. You are on East College Avenue.
4. There are five parking lots. The symbol is found in the map's key, located in the upper left corner of the map.
5. D, C, F, K, N, or D
6. Building W is PSU Bookstore and Building V is Snavelly, Vidmar & Associates and the PA Frost Agency.
7. All types of businesses other than retail. Ten are listed by name but only seven are on the map.

PSU Campus Map Exercise

1. For what purpose would you go to the building marked #4 and how would you get there from Beaver Stadium?
2. What are the Borough of State College's boundaries on this map?
3. If you needed to see someone about financial aid for school, where would you go? Where is the building located?
4. What is the quickest way to get to Jeffrey Field from Hammond Building? By car? By walking? By Campus Bus?
5. What is the Nittany Lion Shrine and what buildings surround it?
6. What helpful information is missing from this map?

ANSWER KEY

1. A person would go to Boucke Building for career counseling, or job placement information. Take Curtin Road to the intersection with Shortlidge Road, make a left, go one block and make a right onto Pollock Road. Boucke Building is on your right across from the Hetzel Union Building, also known as the HUB.
2. The northern boundary is Park Avenue, the southern boundary is College Avenue, and the western boundary is Route 322.
3. One would go to Shields Building on the corner of Curtin Road and University Drive.
4. By car, take College Avenue west to Route 322 and turn right. Continue to the intersection of Park Avenue and Route 322 where you will turn right. Jeffrey Field will be on the right at the corner of University Drive and Park Avenue. (College Avenue is one way and cannot be taken to University Drive)
5. The shrine is a statue of Penn State's mascot, the Nittany Lion, and is surrounded by Recreation Hall (Rec Hall), the Nittany Lion Inn, and Kern Graduate Center.
6. Missing information that would be helpful includes: bus stops and routes, parking areas, one way streets, numbers on all of the buildings, streets that are closed to general traffic such as part of Curtin Road, bike paths, and walking paths.

Key places on campus

1. Hetzel Union Building
This is the undergraduate student nerve center in many ways — the Penn State student union.

2. Penn State Bookstore
The bookstore is the place to go to get many of the textbooks you will need. It is also a great place to buy Penn State memorabilia such as clothing, mugs, hats and other knickknacks. There are art supplies, film and camera gear, calendars and more.

3. Grange Building
This is where you will find the university police department (officially, the Department of University Safety) and the undergraduate advising center.

4. Boucke Building
This is the location of the Career Development and Placement Services office.

5. Ritenour Health Center
Go here when you're sick. This is where you'll find university doctors and nurses. The pharmacy sells inexpensive aspirin, condoms and other items. The building also holds the Center for Counseling and Psychological Services which offers counseling for students.

6. Paul Robeson Cultural Center
The center is used for African-American cultural events and a lot of other activities.

7. Eisenhower Auditorium
This is where Penn State brings many nationally known performing artists. It reputedly has the best acoustics of any building on campus.

8. McCoy Natatorium
Inside you'll find two indoor swimming pools, a diving tank and a fitness gym. There is also an outdoor pool.

9. Shields Building
This is the home of the bursar's office. It is also the home of the registrar's office — the people who track and keep your academic record. You will find the undergraduate student aid office here, too.

10. Beaver Stadium
Home to Penn State football, and a coach you might have heard of named Joe Paterno.

11. Intramural Building
Where to go to pump iron and play basketball. There are basketball courts, volleyball courts, a running track, weight lifting room, wrestling room and racquetball courts.

12. The Creamery
This is where to get Penn State's own ice cream — which starts with milk given by Penn State cows. You will also be able to buy Penn State cheese, mushrooms, milk, honey, eggs and more.

You will have to familiarize yourself with LIAS, which is Penn State's computer reference system.

20. Schwab Auditorium
This is the smaller of Penn State's two auditoriums. The building is the site for concerts, plays, guest lecturers and musicals.

21. Old Main
Where the university's top administrators work.

22. White Building
A small gymnasium and site for the February Penn State Dance Marathon.

23. Hammond Building
The home of the College of Engineering.

24. Classroom Building
This building opened last year and, as the name implies, it's where a lot of students take classes.

25. Keller Conference Center
Where a lot of meetings, symposia, seminars and other gatherings take place.

26. Mater Building
This is the new home of the School of Hotel, Restaurant and Recreation Management.

27. Bryce Jordan Center
This is the site for the 16,500-seat arena named for a former Penn State president and scheduled to be completed in November 1995. Basketball games, commencements, speakers, concerts and more will take place here once the building is finished.

LESSON #3

FOCUS: TRAVELING IN THE COMMUNITY

COMMUNICATION SKILLS:

1. How to select possible modes of transportation
2. How to compare and contrast benefits/disadvantages of different types of transportation
3. How to read bus schedules and learn to figure out the cost of bus trips
4. How to interpret road signs
5. How to ask for roadside assistance

VOCABULARY/CONCEPTS:

modes	board/catch a bus	dispatcher
token	transfer	bus stop
curb	fare	sidewalk
AAA	tow truck	exact change
bus line	slip of paper	terminal
handrail	fare box	bus station vs. bus stop		public transportation

FORMAT:

1. Discuss types of public transportation such as: buses, taxis, trains, subways, and talk about the student's experiences with these modes of transportation.
2. Discuss advantages and disadvantages of public transportation.
3. Compare and contrast public transportation in the U.S. with that in foreign countries.
4. Discuss how recreational travel differs from daily commuting travel.
5. Talk about manners and politeness associated with waiting in line, offering seats to older people, etc. and compare with customs in other countries.
6. ■ Complete the Roleplaying/Discussion Exercises and compare responses.
7. ■ Go over the basics of how to read a bus schedule and then

7. ■ Go over the basics of how to read a bus schedule and then complete the City Bus Exercise and the Campus Loop Exercise.

ASSIGNMENT:

Ask students to write about the worst travel experience they've had in this country.

MATERIALS:

1. Bus schedules--available from the library or the city bus company
2. Examples of recreational travel brochures that include fare schedules

CULTURE KEY:

Transportation involves the use of many two-word verbs and expressions such as get on, get in, get out, get off, take off, etc. ESL students may need some explanation as to the use of these expressions.

LESSON 3

TRAVELING IN THE COMMUNITY

Roleplaying/Discussion Exercises

1. You are seated on a very crowded bus next to a man who wants to strike up a conversation with you, but you are really tired and don't feel like talking. What should you do?
2. You and your three children are sitting comfortably in the back of the bus. There no more seats left when a woman with two young children gets on the bus. Can you help her in any way?
3. It's late at night and you are taking the bus home, but you have to walk two blocks from the bus stop to your house. There is a man on the bus who keeps staring at you and you're getting very nervous. What should you do?
4. You, your husband, and two female friends are traveling on I-80 when your car breaks down in an isolated area. What should you do?
5. You and a stranger share a taxi to the airport. The bill is $10.50 but the stranger only has $3.50. What should you do?
6. You are driving on Atherton Street when a car pulls out of a side street and hits the car in front of you. No one is injured but the cars are badly damaged. What should you do?
7. The bus has only three empty seats. One seat is next to a man who is talking to himself; the second seat is by a woman holding a crying baby, and the third seat is beside a man who is very heavy and takes up nearly two seats. Where will you sit and why?

City Bus Exercise

1. You want to travel from Southgate Apartments to Old Main Building on Wednesday evening. When and where will you catch the bus?
2. What time does the last bus run on Friday evening departing from Chambers Building?
3. Can you catch a bus on Sunday before 11 am?
4. It is Saturday. You want to take a bus from W. Aaron Drive to Beaver Stadium and you want to arrive as early as possible. Describe where and when you will need to board a bus and where and when you will transfer. How much will a round trip cost?

ANSWER KEY

1. You will catch the bus in front of Southgate Apartments and the buses run every thirty-five minutes. The first bus would arrive between 7:00 & 7:05 pm. If you took the 7:00 pm bus, you would arrive in front of Old Main (Stop 10) at 7:25 pm. It would be much quicker to get off at Schlow Library (Stop 16) at 7:12 pm and walk one block to Old Main.
2. 1:39 am
3. No
4. Board ES bus at Stop 4 at 7:15 pm. You will arrive at Schlow Library, (Stop 16) at 8:07 pm. At 8:22 pm you can transfer to the Town Loop and arrive at the corner of Curtin Road and University Drive at 8:30 pm. The cost is $.85 one way, or $1.70 round trip. Transfers are free from the bus driver.

Campus Loop Exercise

1. You want to catch the bus at College Avenue and Allen Street (Stop 3) in order to arrive at the Intramural Building (Stop 1) by 1:15 pm. What time must you be at the bus stop?
2. Which Loop (Campus or Town) must you take to get from College Avenue and Allen Street to the Intramural Building?
3. If you want to go from Beaver Stadium to Old Main, where do you have to catch a bus? Which bus? What route does it follow? If you board the bus at 9:20 AM, what time will you arrive at Old Main?
4. If you arrive at the Bryce Jordan Convocation Center at 8:30AM, how long will you have to wait for a bus? Which bus will you take?
5. Which direction does the bus travel on College Avenue? On Curtin Road?
6. What bus stop is closest to your residence?
7. Can you take a bus from Graduate Circle to the Nittany Lion Inn? If so, which one and how long is the ride?
8. What are the disadvantages to taking the Loop? Advantages?
9. How can the Loop help you get to Hills Plaza?
10. At what time would you leave your residence at Gateway Center to catch a bus to arrive at Keller Conference Center by 9:30 AM? How much would the trip cost?

Campus Loop Exercise
ANSWER KEY

1. 1:00 pm
2. Campus Loop
3. 9:30 am at Shields Building Campus Loop. The route followed is University Drive to Hastings Road to Shortlidge Road to College Avenue.
4. 20 minutes
5. The bus travels east to west only, because College Avenue is a one-way street. The bus travels both directions on Curtin Road.
6. Answers will vary
7. Yes. The Town Loop goes from Graduate Circle to Rec. Hall which is near the Nittany Lion Inn. The trip takes less than 12 minutes.
8. Disadvantages include: being crowded, difficult to wait in bad weather, awkward if carrying a lot of things, being unfamiliar with the schedule. Advantages include: frequency of buses, inexpensive, easier than walking all over campus, easy schedule to understand, don't have to worry about parking.
9. The Town Loop goes to a downtown transfer point on Beaver Avenue in front of Schlowsky Library where you can get a bus to Hills Plaza.
10. In order to give yourself time to walk to the bus stop near Gateway Center, you should leave your apartment around 9:05 am to catch the 9:12 am bus which will drop you off near Keller Building around 9:20 am. The trip would cost $.35.

LESSON #4

FOCUS: THE TELEPHONE BOOK AS A RESOURCE

COMMUNICATION SKILLS:

1. Learn proper telephone etiquette
2. Request information by telephone

History at a Glance Across the State

Throughout Pennsylvania there are hundred of historical markers erected by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission to help the public better understand and remember the state's rich and diverse history. Originally, over 700 roadside markers were installed in 1948, but since then, more than 800 additional signs have been erected. Centre County has 17 markers in addition to the county marker found in Bellefonte.

To make locating these markers easier for those who enjoy researching a region's history, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania printed a Guide to the State Historical Markers of PA, and the following information about Centre County's markers has been gathered from this reference.

Centre County

A CENTRE COUNTY

Formed on Feb. 13, 1800 from Huntingdon, Mifflin, Lycoming and Northumberland counties. Named for its location in the State, and home of The Pennsylvania State University. Five governors of Pennsylvania lived in Bellefonte, county seat, laid out in 1785.

City type: County Courthouse, Allegheny St., Bellefonte. Dedicated May 10, 1947.

1 POTTER'S FORT

Built 1777 by Gen. James Potter. A stockaded fort refuge for the settlers of the valley region. The site is on the nearby rise.

PA 144 SE of Centre Hall. Erected May 5, 1947.

2 28TH DIVISION SHRINE

Dedicated to heroic dead of Pennsylvania's famed 28th in two world wars. The Division was created Sept., 1917. The shrine was founded by Col. Theodore Boal and made a State memorial in 1932.

Business US 322 at Pennsylvania Military Museum, Boalsburg. Erected May 6, 1947.

3 THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY

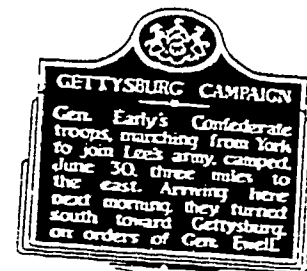

Chartered 1855. Opened Feb. 16, 1859. Gen. James Irvin gave the original land. April 1, 1863, by Act of Assembly made the land grant College of the State for "liberal and practical education."

Business US 322, State College. Erected Apr. 30, 1947.

4 CENTRE FURNACE

Here Cois. John Patton and Samuel Mues operated the first charcoal iron furnace in the region, 1792-1809. Present stack used 1825-1855. In this era Centre County led in the making of Juniata iron.

PA 26 just NE of State College, adjacent to Centre Furnace Mansion. Erected Apr. 29, 1947.

- 4 CENTRE FURNACE
This stack is part of the plant of the Centre Iron Company which was erected in 1792 by Col. John Patton and Colonel Samuel Mues, officers in the war of the American Revolution. The product of this furnace was the first iron melted in Centre County and was carried on mule-back to Pittsburgh. The furnace was operated from 1792 to 1809 and from 1825 to 1856. Tablet placed on the 130th anniversary by the Pennsylvania Historical Commission and the Department of History of the Pennsylvania State College, 1922.
Plaque: Centre Furnace Mansion, 1001 E. College Ave. (PA 26) State College. Dedicated Oct. 30, 1922 at adjacent furnace; relocated about 1980.
- 5 PHILIP BENNER
The ironmaster's home was at Rock. Here also were the first forge, 1794, and a nail and slitting mill. A founder of Bellefonte; leader in Centre County affairs until his death in 1832.
PA 26 NE of State College. Erected May 2, 1947.
- 6 BELLEFONTE
Laid out by James Dunlop and James Harris, 1795. Named by Talleyrand for "beautiful fountain." Early center of the iron industry. One-time home of five of Pennsylvania's governors.
PA 150 at Bellefonte. Erected May 8, 1947.
- 6 ANDREW G. CURTIN
Governor of Pennsylvania, 1861-67, was born on this site. He brought about the establishment of State Normal Schools; organized the famed Pennsylvania Reserve Corps; obtained funds for the erection of State Orphan Schools.
City type: Allegheny St. at Cherry Ln., Bellefonte. Erected Oct. 9, 1950.
- 6 BELLEFONTE AIR MAIL FIELD
The initial stop on the first scheduled west-bound air mail flight was made here by Pilot Leon D. Smith on December 18, 1918. The site for the field was chosen by pioneer aviator Max Miller and was in regular use for air mail until 1925.
PA 550 (E. Bishop St.) at high school, Bellefonte. Erected June 1969.
- 7 PHILIP BENNER
Same text as Philip Benner above.
PA 550 SW of Bellefonte. Erected May 2, 1947.
- 8 SCOTIA
Two miles southwest of here, an iron center called Scotia was established by Andrew Carnegie in 1881. Here houses were erected, a railroad built, and machinery set up. Some physical traces of the center have remained.
US 322 NW of State College. Erected Aug. 1954.
- 9 JUNIATA IRON
Along the streams of this region are ruins of many charcoal iron furnaces and forges built between 1790-1850. Juniata iron was the best in America. Its reign ended with the rise of coal and coke iron making.
US 220 & 322, 1.8 miles NE of Port Matilda. Erected May 6, 1947.
- 10 INDIAN PATHS
The Warriors Mark Path intersected the Bald Eagle Path at about this point, then proceeded north to join the Great Shamokin Path, east of Chinkjacoossee (Clearfield). The Warriors (Mark) Path came north from Cumberland, Maryland, and the Bald Eagle Path came west from Milesburg.
PA 350 S of Philipsburg. Dedicated Oct. 25, 1972.
- 11 UNION CHURCH
Built of logs in 1820 by Philipsburg pioneers to serve as school and place of worship for all faiths. Remodeled in 1842, church is outstanding example of simplified American gothic architecture.
City type: Presque Isle St. (US 322), Philipsburg. Erected Nov. 2, 1967.
- 12 PLUMBE FORGE
About six-tenths mile north are the remains of the forge built by Dr. John Plumble in 1829. Here, "blooms" were made from pig iron cameo from the Bald Eagle Valley by mule. Costs of hauling products to the Pennsylvania Canal caused the forge to close in 1842.
PA 504, 6 miles E of Philipsburg. Erected May 1959.

- 13 BALD EAGLE'S NEST
A Delaware Indian village name for a noted Munsee chief Woapaianne or "Bald Eagle." Located at union of Spring and Bald Eagle Creeks. From here raids on the frontier were made in Revolutionary days.
US 220 & PA 144 at Milesburg. Erected Aug. 26, 1947.
- 14 EAGLE IRONWORKS
At nearby Curtin, making iron was begun about 1810 by Roland Curtin. The last old-style furnace in the U.S. was in blast here and ceased operation in 1922.
PA 150 (former US 220) 2.8 miles NE of Milesburg. Erected Apr. 29, 1947.
- 15 WILLIAM F. PACKER
The newspaper editor and publisher, and Governor of the Commonwealth, 1858-61, was born April 2, 1807, in a house which stood nearby. He died, 1870, in Williamsport and is chiefly remembered for his interest in improved transportation facilities.
PA 150 at PA 26, Howard. Erected May 19, 1971.
- 16 WARRIORS PATH
Paths from all parts of the Six Nations country converged at Great Island. Thence the Warriors Path ran up his valley to Bald Eagle's Nest, now Milesburg, then on south toward the Carolinas.
PA 150, 2.2 miles NE of Howard. Erected Mar. 23, 1949.
- 17 GREAT SHAMOKIN PATH
The Indian highway from Shamokin, now Sunbury, to Kittanning, then the Bald Eagle Valley to follow Marsh Creek and Little Marsh Creek. It crossed the Allegheny Mt. by way of Snow Shoe and Moshannon.
PA 150, 4 miles NE of Howard. Erected Aug. 23, 1950.

LESSON #7

FOCUS: GETTING THERE--BE PREPARED!

COMMUNICATION SKILLS:

1. How to read maps
2. How to understand road signs
3. How to ask for help
4. How to make reservations

VOCABULARY/CONCEPTS:

legend key longitude latitude vertical horizontal arrival/departure
How many are in your party? (meaning group of people)

FORMAT:

1. ■ Begin the lesson by explaining that successful trips begin with good planning. ("Trip Planning" from the PA Driver's Manual) Also discuss agencies that can help with planning such as AAA or travel agencies. If possible, invite a travel agent to come speak to the class about possible bus trips or train trips that one could take in PA.
2. Discuss the typical information necessary to make a reservation. List places that would require reservations.
3. ■ Complete the Safety Scenarios
4. ■ Complete the Map Exercises
5. Read pages 196-198 in the PA Visitors Guide
6. ■ Read For Your Information!!--Accidents and refer to PA Traffic Signs from the PA Driver's Manual.

ASSIGNMENT:

1. Provides students with a copy of the brochure, THE PENNSYLVANIA TRAIL OF HISTORY, titled "A Brief Overview of Pennsylvania History."
2. Instruct them to read the information and write down their questions concerning topics they would like to learn more about.

3. Bring the list of questions to the next class which will be a field trip. Also have the class complete the trip planning sheet.

MATERIALS:

Students may wish to bring their own maps to do further exercises. PA road maps are very helpful.

CULTURE KEY:

Driving rules and habits often are quite different in other parts of the world. Take time to discuss the differences and answer questions.

LESSON 7

GETTING THERE - BE PREPARED!

Trip Planning

An important but often forgotten part of driving is trip planning. Whether you are traveling several hundred miles or just to an unfamiliar part of your own town, you need a basic idea of how to get where you want to go. Good trip planning can help cut down your need to slow down, stop quickly, or make sudden turns. Trips will be safer and more enjoyable too.

The basic tool for planning a trip is a road or street map. These maps are usually easy to get. Most maps show recreational areas and other interesting places, as well as roads and towns. Some maps even include blowups of city areas on the back.

To use a map when you plan a trip, follow these steps:

1. Find the map's legend. Pay close attention to the symbols, the map scale, and to all other information on the map.
2. Find your starting point and finishing point. Decide what routes you will use to get between them. Note the route numbers, street names, and direction you will travel on each route. Pay close attention to places where you must change routes. These are important decision points.
3. Get to know the area around each decision point. Town names are often marked on guide signs. By knowing the towns around a decision point, you can travel through these decision points more easily.
4. Finally, if you are planning to use a limited access highway, use the map to find the interchange nearest your destination. Remember the exit just before your exit, so you will be ready to turn off. Sometimes roads which seem to cross expressways on maps are not attached to the freeway or expressway. Most maps show interchanges with either squares or circles.

From the PA Drivers Manual

Safety Scenarios

1. When you come to a stop sign or a red traffic light, should you come to a complete stop:
 - a) before the crosswalk
 - b) in the crosswalk
 - c) after the crosswalk
2. When you enter a traffic circle, who has the right-of-way?
3. What kind of road signs in PA are black and orange and what should you do when you see them?
4. How far should you park from a fire hydrant? a) 10 feet
b) 15 feet c) 20 feet
5. Who has the right of way when a blind pedestrian is crossing against traffic?
6. Interstate routes ending in even numbers travel in what direction? a) east to west b) north to south c) all directions
7. True or False. Interstate routes with low route numbers are in the Western U.S., while those with high numbers are in the Eastern U.S. Middle numbers are generally in the Central U.S.
8. The part of a road map that lists symbols and measurements is called a) a scale b) a legend c) a domain
9. When a railroad warning sign begins to flash, you should a) slow down and proceed with caution b) stop, look both ways, and proceed with caution c) come to a complete stop
10. True or False. Bicyclists have the same rights, privileges, and responsibilities as any driver.
11. What should you do when you find yourself driving behind a horse-and-buggy?
12. When you are driving on a one-lane highway and you see an ambulance with flashing lights approaching in your rear-view mirror, you should: a) slow down, move to the right, and proceed slowly, b) pull over to the right-hand curb and stop or c) pull off to the left of the road.
13. When a school bus slows down and has flashing red lights, you must: a) stop if you are behind the bus, b) pass the bus quickly before the bus stops or c) stop whether you are behind the bus or coming toward it.

14. True or False. Automobile accidents are the leading cause of death and injury to children in the U.S.A.
15. You should signal when you are: a) changing lanes, b) turning, c) pulling away from the curb, d) entering or leaving a freeway, e) a, b & d, or f) all of the above.

ANSWER KEY

1. a) before the crosswalk
2. Usually you should yield to the car already in the circle; if two cars approach at the same time, the person on the right goes first. Some circles will have directions posted. NOTE: The law does not give anyone the right-of-way; it only tells who must yield to it.
3. Black and orange signs mean construction ahead. You should slow down and be prepared to stop.
4. b) 15 feet
5. Blind pedestrians always have the right-of-way.
6. a) east to west
7. True
8. b) a legend
9. c) stop, look both ways, and proceed with caution
10. True
11. You should slow down; horses often get startled by cars. Only pass when you reach an area safe for passing.
12. b) pull over to the right hand curb and stop
13. c) stop whether you are behind the bus or coming toward it
14. True
15. f) all of the above

Map Exercises

Use the mileage chart to answer the following questions:

1. If it is 111 miles from Philadelphia to Wilkes-Barre, how far is it from Philadelphia to Williamsport?
2. How far is it from State College to Harrisburg?
3. What cities on the map are less than sixty miles away from State College?

What cities are between 60 and 70 miles away from State College?

4. How long would it take to travel from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia?

Use the PA State Map to answer the following questions:

5. If you're traveling from Gettysburg to Hancock, would you take Route 15 or Business Route 15? Which would you take if you were coming from Gettysburg and traveling towards Round Top?
6. Where is the State Police Station located?
7. If you continue to travel south on Route 134, you will come to _____?
8. What is the major route that runs east and west through Gettysburg?
9. What National Park is listed on the map?

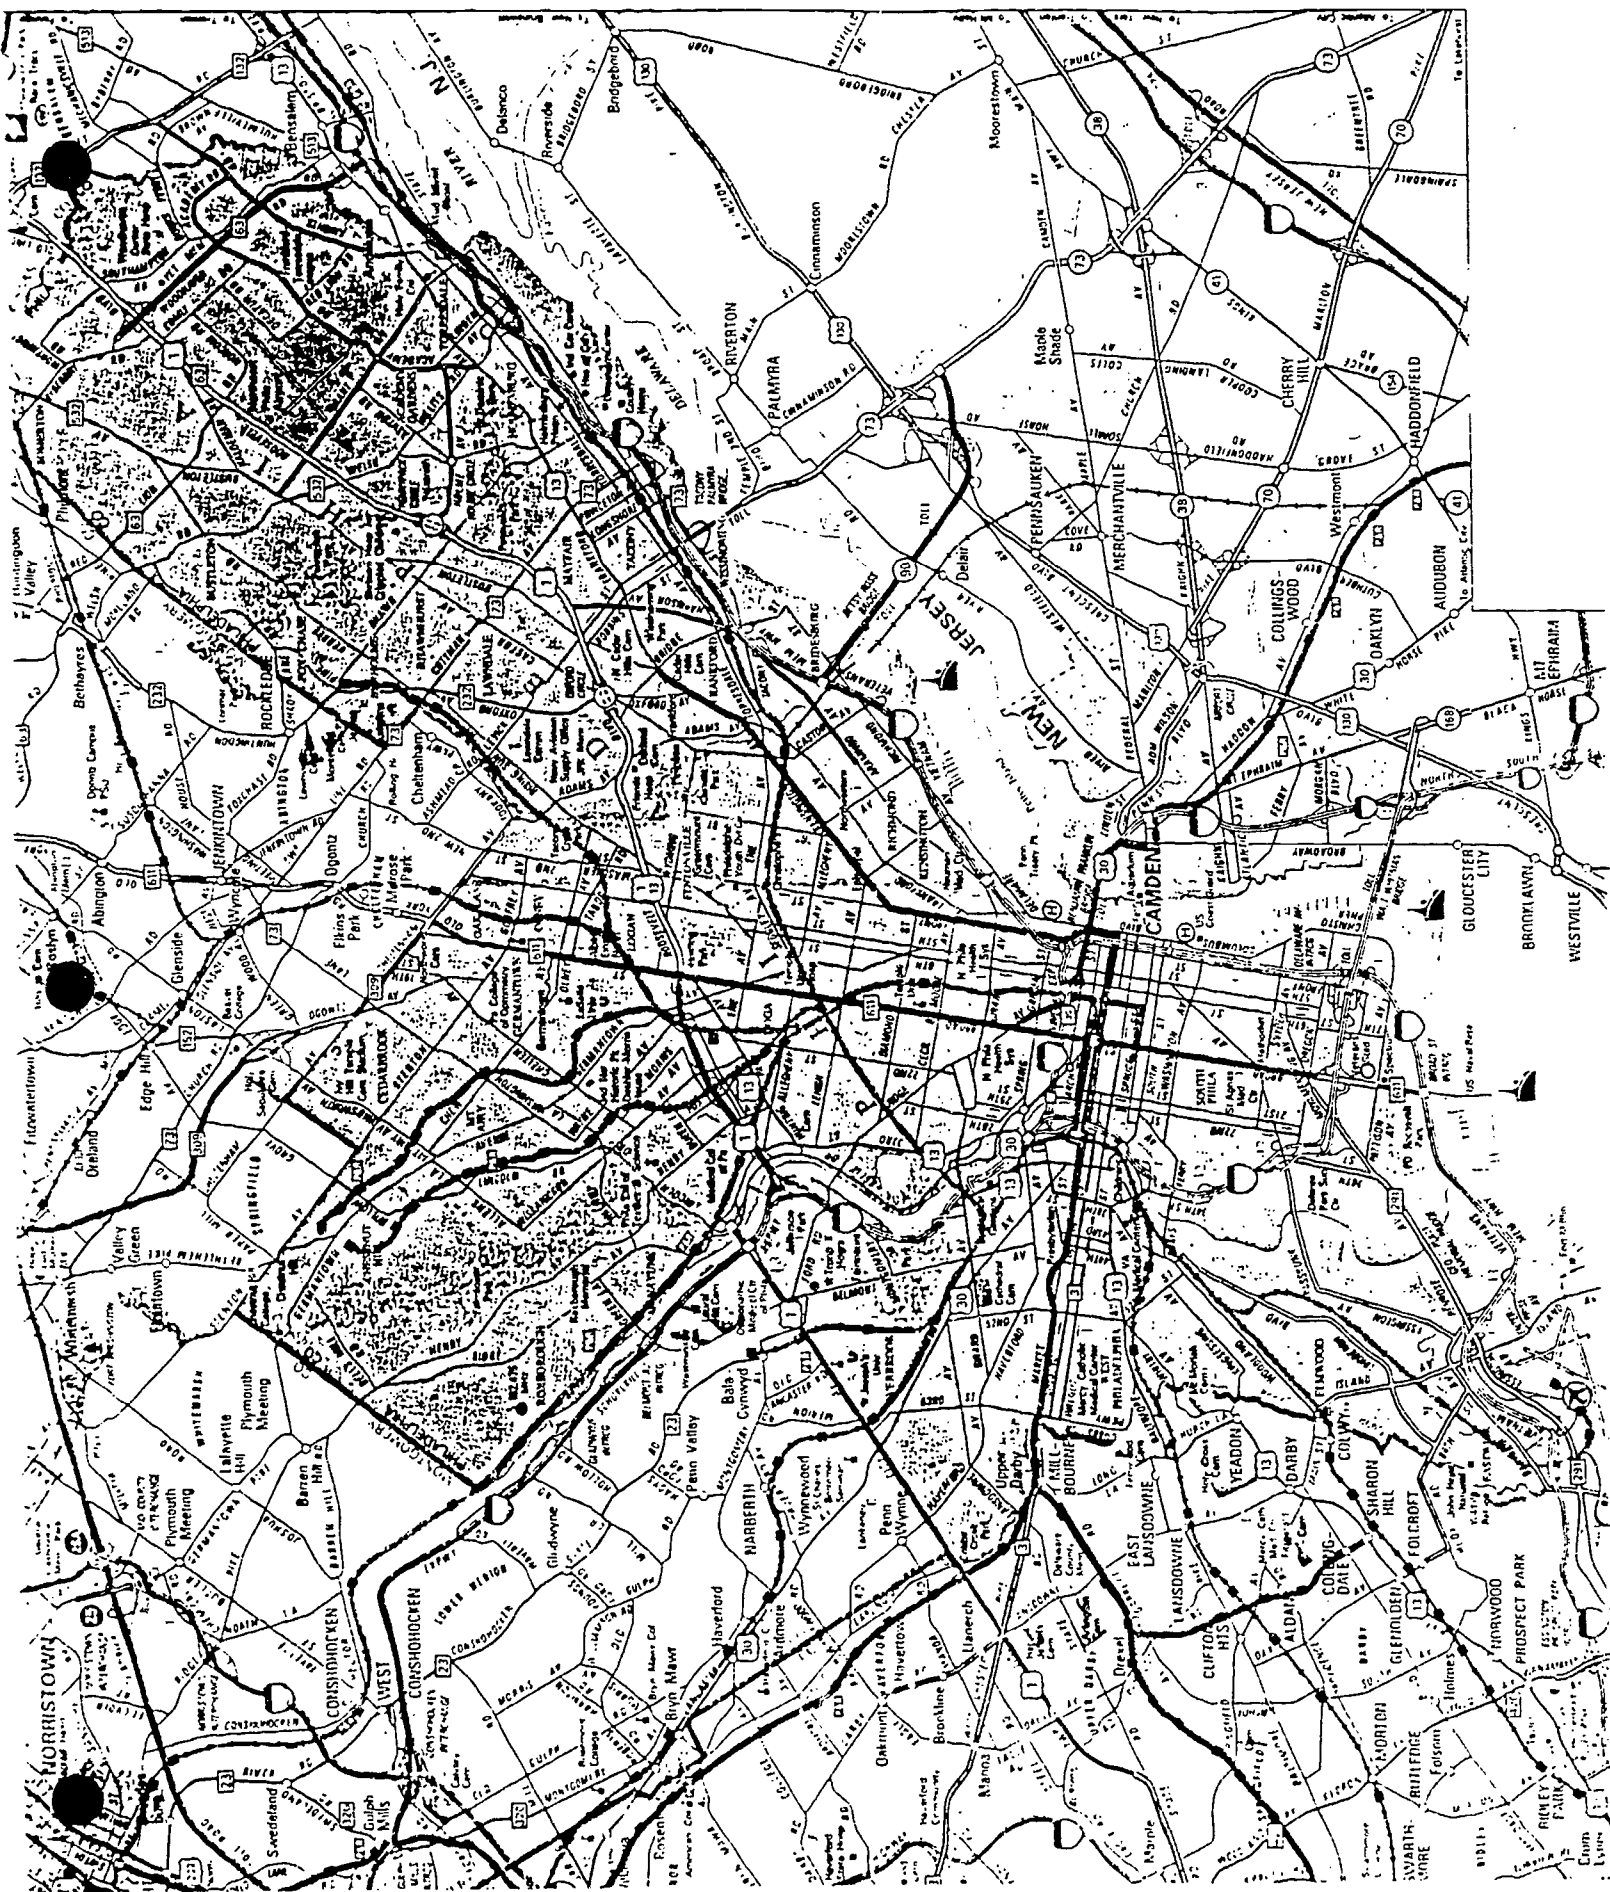

Use the Philadelphia map to answer the following questions:

10. What bridges are available to cross from Philadelphia to New Jersey? Which require a fee?
11. In the left corner of the map near the city of Norristown, there are two dark circles, one marked 25 in the center and the other marked 25A. What do these circles represent?
12. What is the one major route that vertically runs through the middle of Philadelphia?
13. If I wanted to go from Haverford, PA (located near Route 30) to Camden, NJ, how would you direct me?

14. How would you direct me if I wanted to go from Jenkintown which is north of Philadelphia on Route 611, to Drexel Hill, which is in southwest Philadelphia.
15. What separates the city of Philadelphia from the state of New Jersey?

ANSWER KEY

1. 172 miles
2. 88 miles
3. Lock Haven (40), Lewistown (32), Huntington (34), Altoona (43). Dubois is 65 miles away, Williamsport is 67.
4. The trip is 308 miles, so if you divide that by 55 which is the speed limit, you should plan on spending 5 1/2 hours on the trip.
5. Bus. 15 S; Rt. 15 S
6. Near Fairfield & Reynolds Avenue
7. In Maryland
8. Rt. 30
9. Gettysburg National Park
10. Walt Whitman, Ben Franklin, Betsy Ross, and Tacomys Palmyra bridges. All require tolls.
11. Exits off the Turnpike
12. Rt. 611
13. Stay on Rt. 30 E; it goes directly into Camden, NJ
14. Take Rt. 611 S, turn right onto Market St., and turn left onto Rt. 420 S.
15. Delaware River

For Your Information!!!--Accidents

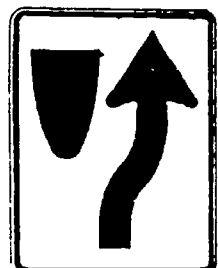

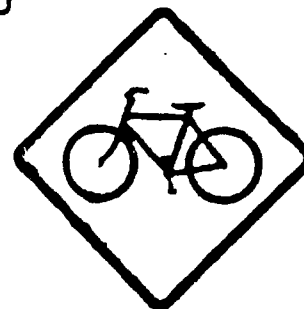

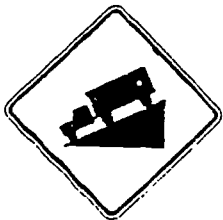

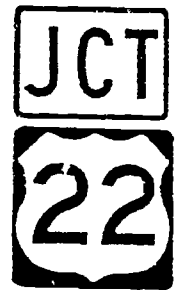

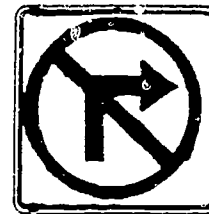

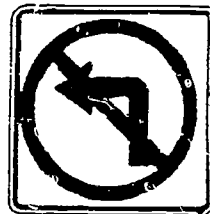

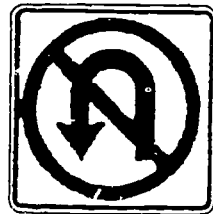

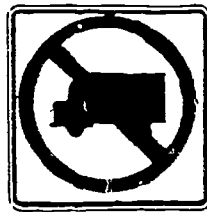

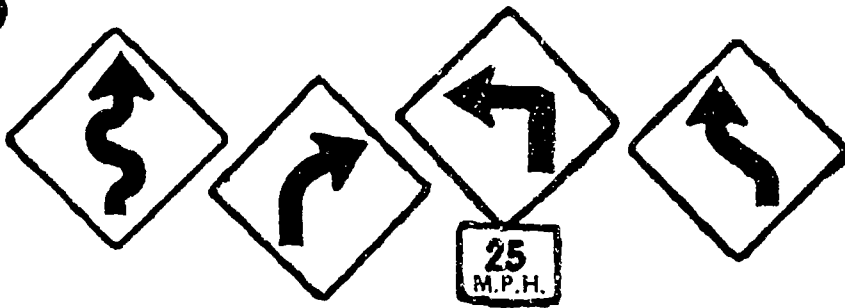

If you are in a accident:

1. Stop your car at or near the accident scene. If you can, move your car off the road so you do not block traffic,
2. Call the police if anyone is hurt or dies. Also call the police if any vehicle is so badly damaged that it must be towed. If the drivers of the cars are hurt and cannot notify the police, then others in the accident must call for help.
3. Get the following information from the other driver or drivers involved in the accident:
 - a) Names and addresses.
 - b) Telephone numbers.
 - c) Driver license numbers.
 - d) Registration numbers.
 - e) Their insurance company names and policy numbers, or

A Brief Overview of Pennsylvania History

Pennsylvania literally means Penn's Woods, so named in honor of the state's founder, William Penn. Penn, came to Pennsylvania from England to establish a colony for Quakers like himself and for other people seeking religious freedom. He was given the land west of the Delaware River by King Charles II of England as payment for a debt owed to Penn's father, Admiral William Penn.

Pennsylvania is often called the Keystone State because it was the cultural and geographic center of the English colonies which stretched from New England to Georgia.

Many Native American Indians lived in Pennsylvania before Penn's arrival. After his death, many battles occurred between Indians and the new residents. In 1768, the Fort Stanwick Treaty was signed, bringing an end to most of the Indian conflicts.

Philadelphia was and continues to be an important city in the state. From 1683-1799, Philadelphia was the capital of the state and was the historic site of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Nineteen miles northwest of Philadelphia, George Washington set up his headquarters at Valley Forge during the severe winter of 1777-78. Today visitors can stop at Valley Forge National Park and retrace some of the great moments, decisions, and hardships that occurred during the Revolutionary War.

During the 1700's, Pennsylvania was an important center in the iron industry. Also during this era, Pennsylvania completed the first hard-surfaced toll road, known today as the Pennsylvania Turnpike. Many natural resources were discovered during Pennsylvania's early years but none was more important to the iron industry than coal. Men like Andrew Carnegie, Charles Schwab and Thomas A. Scott made fortunes in the iron industry thanks to coal which was used as fuel during the iron-making process.

Pennsylvania was invaded three times by Confederate soldiers during the Civil War. The most infamous battle took place in 1863 at Gettysburg where, after three days of fighting, Confederate leader General Robert E. Lee led his men in retreat to Virginia. In November 1863, President Lincoln visited Gettysburg to dedicate a part of the battlefield as a cemetery. It was during this visit that he delivered an emotional 267-word speech, now immortalized and known as the Gettysburg Address.

One of Pennsylvania's most famous residents was Benjamin Franklin; author, statesman, and inventor. Franklin founded the nation's first subscription library; he wrote and published yearly editions of Poor Richard's Almanac from 1733-58 which were filled with many of Franklin's witty and wise sayings, and he also founded the Pennsylvania Academy which evolved into the University of Pennsylvania. Franklin is most famous for his experiments with electricity, especially his dangerous kite-flying episode during a thunderstorm. Lightning struck his kite, traveled down the kite wire and produced a spark when the current struck a key at the end of the wire. Bifocal glasses were the invention of Franklin as well as the Franklin Stove.

Other famous Pennsylvanians who were vital contributors to the cultural and historical growth of the state include James Buchanan, President of the U.S. before Lincoln; Daniel Boone, famous frontiersman born in a log cabin near Reading, PA.; composer Stephen Foster; and seamstress Betsy Ross.

Today Pennsylvania remains an active industrial state that also prides itself for maintaining such beautiful natural resources as the Delaware Water Gap, Pocono Mountains, and the Appalachian Trail. It remains a state rich in cultural and religious diversity that plays host to numerous ethnic festivals each year. New leaders, educators, and inventors continue to uphold Pennsylvania's role as the Keystone State.

FOCUS: CLASS FIELD TRIP

COMMUNICATION SKILLS:

1. How to read and execute directions
2. How to listen and respond to a tour guide
3. How to express appreciation

VOCABULARY/CONCEPTS:

The vocabulary will be specific according to the field trip taken.

FORMAT:

1. The group will meet as planned and car pool to the site selected by the teacher.
2. Collect students' questions from the PA Trail of History assignment.
3. Remind students that the next class will be held at Schlow Library. Everyone is to meet there at the normal class time.

CULTURE KEY:

Relate the field trip site to similar places of interest in the students' countries.

LESSON 8
CLASS FIELD TRIP I

LESSON #9

FOCUS: USING THE LIBRARY AS A RESOURCE

COMMUNICATION SKILLS:

1. How to locate helpful information
2. How to use reference material
3. How to ask for help at the library

VOCABULARY/CONCEPTS:

periodicals	stacks	references
electronic card catalogue		vertical files

FORMAT:

1. Meet at the library for a tour. (NOTE: Most libraries will give tours but they need to be arranged ahead of time. Also, mention any specific instructions which would be helpful, which in this case would be locating books, videos, and maps.)
2. Select a few of the student question and ask the librarian how students might go about finding answers.
3. ■ Divide the class into eight groups. Assign homework questions from lesson 8 to each group and ask them to locate the answers. Ask each group to research one of the eight regions listed in the PA Visitors Guide for a class report. (Erie, Pittsburgh, Allegheny, Laurel Highlands, Valleys of Susquehanna, Pocono Mts., Hershey, and Philadelphia) Students will prepare a brief report on their region for the next class--using Region Worksheet.
4. To help students, the teacher may distribute copies of the PA Visitors Guide.

ASSIGNMENT:

Each group will prepare a brief oral report for the class on the region they were assigned. Each group member should present a segment.

LESSON 9

LESSON #10

FOCUS: PRESENTATION OF REGIONAL REPORTS

COMMUNICATION SKILLS:

1. How to prepare an oral report
2. How to listen, take notes, and ask questions requesting further information

FORMAT:

1. Ask students to submit the questions they were assigned and the answers they were able to locate. Go over the material with the class.
2. Have students present their oral reports and allow time for questions and answers.
3. Have students list the resources they used and prepare a master list for the class.
4. In preparation for the next class:
 - a. explain that during the next class everyone will be working in the same groups and their assignment will be to choose a local attraction and to create a trip schedule/format using the Trip Planning Sheet. Each group will present an idea and the class will vote on which trip they like best. This trip will then be planned by the class and executed as the final class project. (NOTE: Restrictions must be set by the teacher; give an approximate radius in miles and then let the students research the available attractions with that area.)
 - b. take an informal survey of which attractions are most popular with the group: historical sites, recreation, shopping, cultural, etc.

ASSIGNMENT:

Students may locate additional material or pamphlets about possible places to visit within the area defined by the teacher. (AAA Travel Books are excellent sources for ideas.)

LESSON #11

FOCUS: PLANNING A CLASS TRIP

COMMUNICATION SKILLS:

1. How to make decisions as a group
2. How to present the "pros and cons" about suggested activities
3. How to make telephone calls, reservations, and complete other trip details
4. How to create a trip schedule

FORMAT:

1. Students will spend the first half of the session using materials gathered during lesson two to decide which attraction to visit.
2. Each group will present their idea to the class. The class will discuss the "pros and cons" of each suggested activity.
3. The class will vote on the suggestions and pick the most popular one.
4. ■ Students will make any necessary telephone calls to secure reservations or check on prices, and then complete a final schedule using the Trip Planning Sheet.
5. Students will complete and return Discover PA Evaluation forms.

UNIVERSITY

Penn State Book Store — W

BEST COPY AVAILABLE

Key places on campus

1. Hetzel Union Building
This is the undergraduate student nerve center in many ways — the Penn State student union.

2. Penn State Bookstore
The bookstore is the place to go to get many of the textbooks you will need. It is also a great place to buy Penn State memorabilia such as clothing, mugs, hats and other knickknacks. There are art supplies, film and camera gear, calendars and more.

3. Grange Building
This is where you will find the university police department (officially, the Department of University Safety) and the undergraduate advising center.

4. Boucke Building
This is the location of the Career Development and Placement Services office.

5. Ritenour Health Center
Go here when you're sick. This is where you'll find university doctors and nurses. The pharmacy sells inexpensive aspirin, condoms and other items.

The building also holds the Center for Counseling and Psychological Services which offers counseling for students.

6. Paul Robeson Cultural Center
The center is used for African-American cultural events and a lot of other activities.

7. Eisenhower Auditorium
This is where Penn State brings many nationally known performing artists. It reputedly has the best acoustics of any building on campus.

8. McCoy Natatorium
Inside you'll find two indoor swimming pools, a diving tank and a fitness gym. There is also an outdoor pool.

9. Shields Building
This is the home of the bursar's office. It is also the home of the registrar's office — the people who track and keep your academic record. You will find the undergraduate student aid office here, too.

10. Beaver Stadium
Home to Penn State football, and a coach you might have heard of named Joe Paterno.

11. Intramural Building
Where to go to pump iron and play basketball. There are basketball courts, volleyball courts, a running track, a weight lifting room, wrestling room and racquetball courts.

12. The Creamery
This is where to get Penn State's own ice cream — which starts with milk given by Penn State cows. You will also be able to buy Penn State cheese, mushrooms, milk, honey, eggs and more.

13. Palmer Museum of Art
Reportedly the largest collection of art between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

14. Eisenhower Chapel
You will find the campus religious organizations based here. The chapel is the site of non-denominational services every Sunday.

15. Kern Graduate Center
This is the home for graduate student services — it is their HUB. Inside are the Graduate School, research administrative offices, Otto's (a cafeteria), and the Graduate Student Association offices.

16. Nittany Lion Shrine
A statue of the school mascot that regularly is the target of fans from visiting athletic teams.

17. Nittany Lion Inn
A neat place to stay on campus while visiting.

18. Recreation Building
You can call it Rec Hall. Everyone does. The 16,000 Academic/Athletic Convocation Center the university expects to open sometime in the next couple of years will succeed this as the home to the Nittany Lion basketball and wrestling teams.

19. Pattee Library
Penn State's main library, and a most confusing building.

You will have to familiarize yourself with LIAS, which is Penn State's computer reference system.

20. Schwab Auditorium
This is the smaller of Penn State's two auditoriums. The building is the site for concerts, plays, guest lecturers and musicals.

21. Old Main
Where the university's top administrators work.

22. White Building
A small gymnasium and site for the February Penn State Dance Marathon.

23. Hammond Building
The home of the College of Engineering.

24. Classroom Building
This building opened last year and, as the name implies, it's where a lot of students take classes.

25. Keller Conference Center
Where a lot of meetings, symposiums and other gatherings take place.

26. Mater Building
This is the new home of the School of Hotel, Restaurant and Recreation Management.

27. Bryce Jordan Center
This is the site for the 16,500-seat arena named for a former Penn State president and scheduled to be completed in November 1995. Basketball games, commencements, speakers, concerts and more will take place here once the building is finished.

History at a Glance Across the State

Throughout Pennsylvania there are hundreds of historical markers erected by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission to help the public better understand and remember the state's rich and diverse history. Originally, over 700 roadside markers were installed in 1948, but since then, more than 800 additional signs have been erected. Centre County has 17 markers in addition to the county marker found in Bellefonte.

To make locating these markers easier for those who enjoy researching a region's history, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania printed a Guide to the State Historical Markers of PA, and the following information about Centre County's markers has been gathered from this reference.

Centre County

A CENTRE COUNTY

Formed on Feb. 13, 1800 from Huntingdon, Mifflin, Lycoming and Northumberland counties. Named for its location in the State and home of The Pennsylvania State University. Five governors of Pennsylvania lived in Bellefonte, county seat laid out in 1795.

City type: County Courthouse, Allegheny St., Bellefonte. Dedicated May 10, 1962.

1 POTTER'S FORT

Built 1777 by Gen. James Potter. A stockaded fort refuge for the settlers of the valley region. The site is on the nearby rise.

PA 144 SE of Centre Hall. Erected May 5, 1947.

2 28TH DIVISION SHRINE

Dedicated to heroic dead of Pennsylvania's famed 28th in two world wars. The Division was created Sept., 1917. The shrine was founded by Col. Theodore Boal and made a State memorial in 1932.

Business US 322 at Pennsylvania Military Museum, Boalsburg. Erected May 6, 1947.

3 THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY

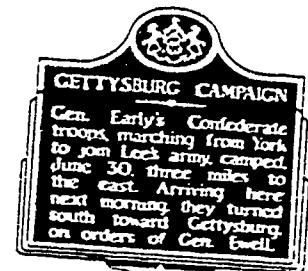

Chartered 1655. Opened Feb. 16, 1855. Gen. James Irvin gave the original land. April 1, 1863, by Act of Assembly made the land grant College of the State for "liberal and practical education."

Business US 322, State College. Erected Apr. 30, 1947.

4 CENTRE FURNACE

Here Cols. John Patton and Samuel Miles operated the first charcoal iron furnace in the region, 1792-1809. Present stack used 1825-1858. In this era Centre County led in the making of Juniata iron.

PA 26 just NE of State College, adjacent to Centre Furnace Mansion. Erected Apr. 29, 1947.

4 CENTRE FURNACE

This stack is part of the plant of the Centre Iron Company which was erected in 1792 by Col. John Patton and Colonel Samuel Mues, officers in the war of the American Revolution. The product of this furnace was the first iron melted in Centre County and was carried on mule-back to Pittsburgh. The furnace was operated from 1792 to 1834 and from 1835 to 1856. Tablet placed on the 130th anniversary by the Pennsylvania Historical Commission and the Department of History of the Pennsylvania State College, 1922.

Plaque: Centre Furnace Mansion, 1001 E. College Ave. (PA 26), State College. Dedicated Oct. 30, 1922 at adjacent furnace, relocated about 1980.

5 PHILIP BENNER

The ironmaster's home was at Rock. Here also were the first forge, 1794, and a nail and slitting mill. A founder of Bellefonte; leader in Centre County affairs until his death in 1832.

PA 26 NE of State College. Erected May 2, 1947.

6 BELLEFONTE

Laid out by James Dunlop and James Harris, 1795. Named by Talleyrand for "beautiful fountain." Early center of the iron industry. One-time home of five of Pennsylvania's governors.

PA 150 at Bellefonte. Erected May 8, 1947.

6 ANDREW G. CURTIN

Governor of Pennsylvania, 1861-67, was born on this site. He brought about the establishment of State Normal Schools; organized the famed Pennsylvania Reserve Corps; obtained funds for the erection of State Orphan Schools.

City type: Allegheny St. at Cherry Ln., Bellefonte. Erected Oct. 9, 1950.

6 BELLEFONTE AIR MAIL FIELD

The initial stop on the first scheduled west-bound air mail flight was made here by Pilot Leon D. Smith on December 18, 1918. The site for the field was chosen by pioneer aviator Max Miller and was in regular use for air mail until 1925.

PA 550 (E. Bishop St.) at high school, Bellefonte. Erected June 1969.

7 PHILIP BENNER

Same text as Philip Benner above.

PA 550 SW of Bellefonte. Erected May 2, 1947.

8 SCOTIA

Two miles southwest of here, an iron center called Scotia was established by Andrew Carnegie in 1881. Here houses were erected, a railroad built, and machinery set up. Some physical traces of the center have remained.

US 322 NW of State College. Erected Aug. 1954.

9 JUNIATA IRON

Along the streams of this region are ruins of many charcoal iron furnaces and forges built between 1790-1850. Juniata iron was the best in America. Its reign ended with the rise of coal and coke iron making.

US 220 & 322, 1.8 miles NE of Port Matilda. Erected May 6, 1947.

10 INDIAN PATHS

The Warriors Mark Path intersected the Bald Eagle Path at about this point, then proceeded north to join the Great Shamokin Path, east of Chinidacamoose (Clearfield). The Warriors (Mark) Path came north from Cumberland, Maryland, and the Bald Eagle Path came west from Milesburg.

PA 350 S of Philipsburg. Dedicated Oct. 25, 1972.

11 UNION CHURCH

Built of logs in 1820 by Philipsburg pioneers to serve as school and place of worship for all faiths. Remodeled in 1842, church is outstanding example of simplified American gothic architecture.

City type: Presquevie St. (US 322), Philipsburg. Erected Nov. 2, 1967.

12 PLUMBE FORGE

About six-tenths mile north are the remains of the forge built by Dr. John Plumble in 1828. Here, "blooms" were made from pig iron carried from the Bald Eagle Valley by mule. Costs of hauling products to the Pennsylvania Canal caused the forge to close in 1842.

PA 504, 6 miles E of Philipsburg. Erected May 1969.

13 BALD EAGLE'S NEST

A Delaware Indian village name for a noted Munsee chief Woapalanne or "Bald Eagle." Located at union of Spring and Bald Eagle Creeks. From here raids on the frontier were made in Revolutionary days.

US 220 & PA 144 at Milesburg. Erected Aug. 26, 1947.

14 EAGLE IRONWORKS

At nearby Curtin, making iron was begun about 1810 by Roland Curtin. The last old-style furnace in the U.S. was in blast here and ceased operation in 1922.

PA 150 (former US 220) 2.8 miles NE of Milesburg. Erected Apr. 29, 1947.

15 WILLIAM F. PACKER

The newspaper editor and publisher, and Governor of the Commonwealth, 1856-61, was born April 2, 1807, in a house which stood nearby. He died, 1870, in Williamsport and is chiefly remembered for his interest in improved transportation facilities.

PA 150 at PA 26, Howard. Erected May 19, 1971.

16 WARRIORS PATH

Paths from all parts of the Six Nations country converged at Great Island. Thence the Warriors Path ran up his valley to Bald Eagle's Nest, now Milesburg; then on south toward the Carolinas.

PA 150, 2.2 miles NE of Howard. Erected Mar. 23, 1949.

17 GREAT SHAMOKIN PATH

The Indian highway from Shamokin, now Sunbury, to Kittanning, left the Bald Eagle Valley to follow Marsh Creek and Little Marsh Creek. It crossed the Allegheny Mt. by way of Snow Snow and Moshannon.

PA 150, 4 miles NE of Howard. Erected Aug. 23, 1950.

LESSON 7

GETTING THERE - BE PREPARED!

Trip Planning

An important but often forgotten part of driving is trip planning. Whether you are traveling several hundred miles or just to an unfamiliar part of your own town, you need a basic idea of how to get where you want to go. Good trip planning can help cut down your need to slow down, stop quickly, or make sudden turns. Trips will be safer and more enjoyable too.

The basic tool for planning a trip is a road or street map. These maps are usually easy to get. Most maps show recreational areas and other interesting places, as well as roads and towns. Some maps even include blowups of city areas on the back.

To use a map when you plan a trip, follow these steps:

1. Find the map's legend. Pay close attention to the symbols, the map scale, and to all other information on the map.
2. Find your starting point and finishing point. Decide what routes you will use to get between them. Note the route numbers, street names, and direction you will travel on each route. Pay close attention to places where you must change routes. These are important decision points.
3. Get to know the area around each decision point. Town names are often marked on guide signs. By knowing the towns around a decision point, you can travel through these decision points more easily.
4. Finally, if you are planning to use a limited access highway, use the map to find the interchange nearest your destination. Remember the exit just before your exit, so you will be ready to turn off. Sometimes roads which seem to cross expressways on maps are not attached to the freeway or expressway. Most maps show interchanges with either squares or circles.

From the PA Drivers Manual

Safety Scenarios

1. When you come to a stop sign or a red traffic light, you should come to a complete stop:
 - a) before the crosswalk
 - b) in the crosswalk
 - c) after the crosswalk
2. When you enter a traffic circle, who has the right-of-way?
3. What kind of Pennsylvania road signs are black and orange? What should you do when you see them?
4. How far should you park from a fire hydrant? a) 10 feet
b) 15 feet c) 20 feet
5. Who has the right of way when a blind pedestrian is crossing against traffic?
6. Interstate routes ending in even numbers travel in what direction? a) east to west b) north to south c) all directions
7. True or False. Interstate routes with low route numbers are in the Western U.S., while ones with high numbers are in the Eastern U.S. Middle numbers are generally in the Central U.S.
8. The part of a road map that lists symbols and measurements is called a) a scale b) a legend c) a domain
9. When a railroad warning sign begins to flash, you should a) slow down and proceed with caution b) stop, look both ways, and proceed with caution c) come to a complete stop

10. True or False. Bicyclists have the same rights, privileges, and responsibilities as any driver.
11. What should you do when you are driving behind a horse-and-buggy?
12. When you are driving on a one-lane highway and you see an ambulance with flashing lights approaching in your rear-view mirror, you should: a) slow down, move to the right, and proceed slowly, b) pull over to the right-hand curb and stop or c) pull off to the left of the road.
13. When a school bus slows down and has flashing red lights, you must: a) stop if you are behind the bus, b) pass the bus quickly before the bus stops or c) stop whether you are behind the bus or coming toward it.
14. True or False. Automobile accidents are the leading cause of death and injury to children in the U.S.A.
15. You should signal when you are: a) changing lanes, b) turning, c) pulling away from the curb, d) entering or leaving a freeway, e) a, b & d or f) all of the above.

Map Exercises

Use the mileage chart to answer the following questions:

1. If it is 111 miles from Philadelphia to Wilkes-Barre, how far is it from Philadelphia to Williamsport?
2. How far is it from State College to Harrisburg?
3. What cities on the map are less than sixty miles away from State College?

What cities are between 60 and 70 miles away from State College?

4. How long would it take to travel from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia?

Use the PA State Map to answer the following questions:

5. If you're traveling from Gettysburg to Hancock, would you take Route 15 or Business Route 15? Which would you take if you were coming from Gettysburg and traveling towards Round Top?
6. Where is the State Police Station located?
7. If you continue to travel south on Route 134, you will come to _____?
8. What is the major route that runs east and west through Gettysburg?
9. What National Park is listed on the map?

Use the Philadelphia map to answer the following questions:

10. What bridges are available to cross from Philadelphia to New Jersey? Which require a fee?
11. In the left corner of the map near the city of Norristown, there are two dark circles, one marked 25 and the other marked 25A. What do these circles represent?
12. What is the one major route that vertically runs through the middle of Philadelphia?
13. If I wanted to go from Haverford (located near Route 30) to Camden, NJ, how would you direct me?
14. How would you direct me if I wanted to go from Jenkintown which is north of Philadelphia on Route 611, to Drexel Hill, which is in southwest Philadelphia.
15. What separates the city of Philadelphia from the state of New Jersey?

For Your Information--ACCIDENTS

If you are in a accident:

1. Stop your car at or near the accident scene. If you can, move your car off the road so you do not block traffic,
2. Call the police if anyone is hurt or dies. Also call the police if any vehicle is so badly damaged that it must be towed. If the drivers of the cars are hurt and cannot notify the police, then others in the accident must call for help.
3. Get the following information from the other driver or drivers involved in the accident:
 - a) Names and addresses.
 - b) Telephone numbers.
 - c) Driver license numbers.
 - d) Registration numbers.
 - e) Their insurance company names and policy numbers, or
 - f) Information about financial responsibility.
4. Get the names and addresses of:
 - a) People involved in the accident.
 - b) Witnesses of the accident.
 - c) Injured people.
5. If the accident involves a parked car, stop immediately and try to find the owner. If you cannot, leave a note in a place where it can be seen. Then tell the police. The note should include:
 - a) Your name and address.
 - b) Your driver's license number.
 - c) Your car's registration number.
 - d) Date and time of the accident.
 - e) Your insurance company's name and your policy number.
6. If the police do not investigate an accident and someone has died or been injured, or if a vehicle must be towed, send a written report of the accident within five days to:

A Brief Overview of Pennsylvania History

Pennsylvania literally means Penn's Woods, so named in honor of the state's founder, William Penn. Penn, came to Pennsylvania from England to establish a colony for Quakers like himself and for other people seeking religious freedom. He was given the land west of the Delaware River by King Charles II of England as payment for a debt owed to Penn's father, Admiral William Penn.

Pennsylvania is often called the Keystone State because it was the cultural and geographic center of the English colonies which stretched from New England to Georgia.

Many Native American Indians lived in Pennsylvania before Penn's arrival. After his death, many battles occurred between Indians and the new residents. In 1768, the Fort Stanwick Treaty was signed, bringing an end to most of the Indian conflicts.

Philadelphia was and continues to be an important city in the state. From 1683-1799, Philadelphia was the capital of the state and was the historic site of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Nineteen miles northwest of Philadelphia, George Washington set up his headquarters at Valley Forge during the severe winter of 1777-78. Today visitors can stop at Valley Forge National Park and retrace some of the great moments, decisions, and hardships that occurred during the Revolutionary War.

During the 1700's, Pennsylvania was an important center in the iron industry. Also during this era, Pennsylvania completed the first hard-surfaced toll road, known today as the Pennsylvania Turnpike. Many natural resources were discovered during Pennsylvania's early years but none was more important to the iron industry than coal. Men like Andrew Carnegie, Charles Schwab and Thomas A. Scott made fortunes in the iron industry thanks to coal which was used as fuel during the iron-making process.

Pennsylvania was invaded three times by Confederate soldiers during the Civil War. The most infamous battle took place in 1863 at Gettysburg where, after three days of fighting, Confederate leader General Robert E. Lee led his men in retreat to Virginia. In November 1863, President Lincoln visited Gettysburg to dedicate a part of the battlefield as a cemetery. It was during this visit that he delivered an emotional 267-word speech, now immortalized and known as the Gettysburg Address.

One of Pennsylvania's most famous residents was Benjamin Franklin; author, statesman, and inventor. Franklin founded the nation's first subscription library; he wrote and published yearly editions of Poor Richard's Almanac from 1733-58 which were filled with many of Franklin's witty and wise sayings, and he also founded the Pennsylvania Academy which evolved into the University of Pennsylvania. Franklin is most famous for his experiments with electricity, especially his dangerous kite-flying episode during a thunderstorm. Lightning struck his kite, traveled down the kite wire and produced a spark when the current struck a key at the end of the wire. Bifocal glasses were the invention of Franklin as well as the Franklin Stove.

Other famous Pennsylvanians who were vital contributors to the cultural and historical growth of the state include: James Buchanan, President of the U.S. before Lincoln; Daniel Boone, famous frontiersman born in a log cabin near Reading, PA.; composer Stephen Foster; and seamstress Betsy Ross.

Today Pennsylvania remains an active industrial state that also prides itself for maintaining such beautiful natural resources as the Delaware Water Gap, Pocono Mountains, and the Appalachian Trail. It remains a state rich in cultural and religious diversity that plays host to numerous ethnic festivals each year. New leaders, educators, and inventors continue to uphold Pennsylvania's role as the Keystone State.

AMERICA STARTS HERE

PENNSYLVANIA'S RICH CULTURAL DIVERSITY DATES BACK MORE THAN 300 YEARS, WHEN THE QUAKER WILLIAM PENN. ESTABLISHED "PENN'S WOODS" AS A HAVEN FOR THE OPPRESSED.

As the fledgling America grew, so did the desire for independence. And because Philadelphia had become the Colonies' largest city, it was a natural meeting place for the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

You may think that "America Starts Here" refers to a single defining event in our nation's history, but that couldn't be farther from the truth.

Pennsylvania's history is rich with new beginnings. In the Philadelphia area, for example, you can walk on the same cobblestone streets where Thomas Jefferson walked. And you can visit George Washington's headquarters at Valley Forge National Park to relive America's exciting beginning.

After the Revolutionary War, Philadelphia continued to be a magnet for people and events. Benjamin Franklin founded the country's first lending library here. Philadelphians established America's first zoo, first university, first newspaper, first savings bank, first firefighting company, first independent hospital and first stock exchange.

Pennsylvanians were beginning to push the American frontier West. Colonel Henry Bouquet led his troops to victory at the Battle of Bushy Run. Fort Pitt, overlooking Pittsburgh's three rivers, was the site of a key battle in the French and Indian Wars. Today one of the last remaining early 19th-century warships, the Brig Niagara, is docked on Lake Erie, a permanent tribute to Commodore Perry's victory over the British in the War of 1812. Listen hard, and you might still hear the famous battle cry, "Don't give up the ship!"

After Western Pennsylvania was secured, the pioneers followed. Wilderness roads were crowded with Conestoga wagons (another Pennsylvania first) that were introduced near Lancaster. Many of those pioneers found peace and harmony in Pennsylvania, where the Old Order Amish and Mennonites began to build close-knit communities that flourish to this day.

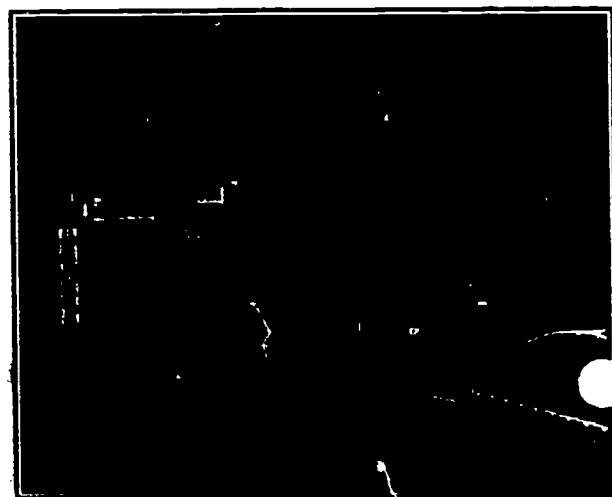

Even the casual history buff knows that the peaceful life style of southcentral Pennsylvania (and the nation) was shattered on the first hot days of July in 1863. That's when The Civil War crossed the Mason-Dixon Line and two proud armies clashed on the fields of Gettysburg. It was here that President Lincoln redefined the meaning of the war—and the nation—with his historic address.

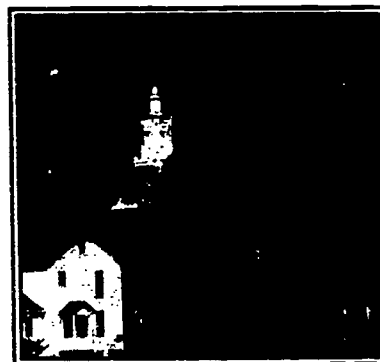

Meanwhile, another revolution was taking place as Pennsylvanians began to understand the promise of technology. By-products of the Industrial Revolution included the nation's first steam locomotive, the Stourbridge Lion, which ran in Wayne County. The first steamship was built in Brownsville, Fayette County. Even the oil industry got its start here in 1859, near Oil Creek in Titusville.

Coal from towns like Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, Allentown and Altoona stoked the engines of the revolution and enhanced America's industrial might. Immigrants in cities like Pittsburgh and Johnstown forged a nation from steel and iron at a time when America's growth depended on vast quantities of both.

BEST COPY AVAILABLE 143

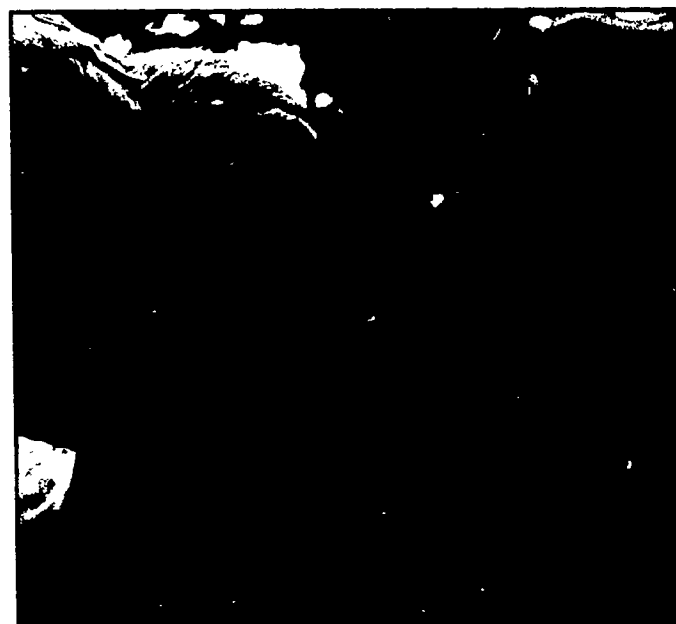

The Industrial Revolution led to the beginning of another profitable industry—tourism. As far back as 1815, adventurous Pennsylvanians journeyed to the Pocono Mountains to discover their matchless beauty. hike and ride along narrow mountain paths, and fish, swim and sail in sparkling lakes. Pennsylvanians were the first to introduce light-hearted diversions such as root beer, ice cream sodas and banana splits.

Pennsylvania greeted the 20th century with the same enthusiasm and innovation that marked its historic past. The first computer was invented at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. The electron microscope was invented near Pittsburgh. The nation's first robotics institute was founded at Pittsburgh's Carnegie Mellon University a little more than a decade ago.

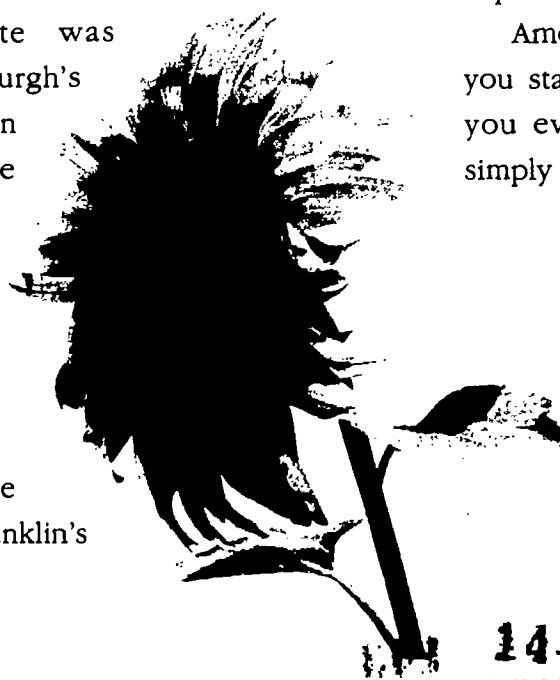

In fact, you can trace Pennsylvania's genius for new ideas on a time line from Benjamin Franklin's bifocals to the super-computer, from America's Constitution to the first cookbook.

From the restored landmarks along the Trail of History to Frank Lloyd Wright's "Fallingwater," Pennsylvania is the beginning of so many rich adventures, they're virtually unlimited. Ski down a snowy slope in the Poconos. Cast for trout in a clear, cold stream in the Allegheny National Forest. Open your mind to a contemporary art exhibit. And experience a sense of personal discovery that makes travel the fulfilling experience it should be.

America starts here in so many ways. Once you start your journey here, you'll wonder how you ever managed to live without it. There's simply nothing quite like it.

HOW TO USE THE VISITOR

WELCOME TO THE PENNSYLVANIAS

Pennsylvania has so much to offer travelers that we like to think of it as eight destinations in one.

In fact, most people choose to travel in a specific region of the state--each one offers something different. And so we've organized this travel planner into eight regions. After reading through it, you'll have a good idea of what you can expect from our different regions.

The Regional Contacts section that precedes each region will tell you a little about the area and what a visitor can expect to do and see there at a glance.

It is followed by a regional Calendar of Events. In these pages you'll find a variety of special scheduled events, from ski races to harvest festivals, that the whole family can enjoy.

After the Calendar of Events, the Directory listings direct you to the many things to do and see, as well as the fine places to stay in each region. In addition, all listings are coded to Pennsylvania's official transportation map, so you can choose your route wisely.

Our spectacular fall foliage and the dozens of challenging ski areas are depicted in "Autumn in Pennsylvania" and "Ski it to Believe it" sections. Pennsylvania's colorful fall season and various ski areas are two attractions that most visitors won't want to miss. So we've set aside special pages filled with statewide information on these seasonal highlights.

Peruse our Maps, Brochures and More and learn how to receive more information about attractions such as snowmobiling, state parks, wineries and more. Our Guest Welcome Centers are a complete resource for travelers on the road. Their locations and hours are located in their own separate section in the book. Information for Travelers provides general information about the state as well as addresses and phone numbers to contact state agencies.

Once you've selected your Pennsylvania destination, it's easy to find out more about what's going on there during your visit and to plan your entire vacation. You can call the Tourism Promotion Agency listed in the Regional Contacts sections. Or you may choose to mail the Tourism Promotion Agency coupons provided in the coupon section in the back of the guide. Advertiser Coupons, also in this section, can provide lots of savings.

E 1994 PENNSYLVANIA VISITORS GUIDE

You may also wish to receive more information from our advertisers. Just check off the advertisers of interest on the Reader Service Card in the back of the book. Then drop the card in the mail, postage is already paid.

To order an additional copy of this guide for family or friends simply call 1-800-VISIT-PA. Hearing impaired persons can request a copy of the Visitors Guide via TDD by dialing 1-800-332-8338 from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. EST. To order an edited version of the Pennsylvania Visitors Guide in tape format for vision impaired persons, call 1-800-237-4363, from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. EST, Monday – Friday.

This symbol  means that the attraction or service provider listed has indicated that its entrance, access to goods and services, parking and restroom facilities are accessible to people with disabilities. For more specific information on accessibility, we suggest you call or write in advance of your visit.

Enjoy your vacation where America starts. In Pennsylvania.

Blaze The Trail
OF HISTORY

Included in our many historic sites are special state-owned or operated stops along Pennsylvania's TRAIL OF HISTORY, designated by this symbol. Each is a celebration of the people, places and events that make our history unique. The Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission publishes a free brochure, "The Pennsylvania Trail of History", describing state-owned attractions. For your copy, write the PHMC, P.O. Box 1026, Harrisburg, PA 17108-1026. Or call (717) 787-3362.

THE PERFECT SUNDAY

Pennsylvania's many historic sites and museums are fun every day. Kids restless? Guests you want to entertain? Need a Sunday solution? Our places offer a family experience year round. Come and browse through our timeless treasures. Become a part of our special events. Enjoy our museum stores, guided tours, craft demonstrations and living history reenactments. The Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission offers you a place in history, anytime.

Pittsburgh shines after dark.

Egyptian history at the Carnegie.

THIS REGION PRIDES ITSELF ON ITS CONTRASTS. THE VIEW FROM PITTSBURGH'S INCLINE INCLUDES A SPARKLING SKYLINE AND THE BUSTLING COMMERCE OF ITS THREE RIVERS, ONCE LINED WITH MILLS AND MINES.

Today, these riverbanks are home to Point State Park and historic Fort Pitt, site of a key battle in 1754 during the French and Indian War.

This sophisticated mecca is rich in cultural attractions. You'll enjoy the Carnegie Science Center, Carnegie Museum of Art and Natural History, Frick Art Museum, Allegheny Observatory, Pittsburgh Children's Museum, Benedum Center and Heinz Hall Performance Centers, and Nationality Classrooms that showcase our ethnic diversity.

High performance on ice and stage!

There's sumptuous dining and terrific shopping, up-and-coming redevelopment along the three rivers, and thrilling sports—Steelers football, Penguins hockey, Pirates baseball. The city has a new 21st century international airport with skylit corridors and moving sidewalks. And there's always fun at Kennywood Park, the historic landmark amusement park.

A short drive from the glass and glitter are historic towns like Old Economy Village in Beaver County. Washington County's picturesque landscape includes century-old covered bridges. Lawrence County is home to several Amish communities and Volant with 40 quaint shops on its main street—and to New Castle, the Fireworks Capital of the World.

Ford City in Armstrong County has 80 juried craft booths at its annual show.

Culture, arts, entertainment, history and fun. Your family will find the variety it's looking for in the Pittsburgh Region.

Take a country drive, shop 'till you drop or just sit back and be entertained.

The Most Dramatic Entrance in America PITTSBURGH!

The New York Times called it "the only city in America with an entrance." Quite simply, there is nothing else like it in the nation. One minute you're surrounded by rolling countryside, trees and hills. Two minutes later, you pass through a mountain into the light of a city poised on the edge of the 21st Century.

FLY INTO PITTSBURGH and you'll touch down in one of the world's newest, most sophisticated airports.

DRIVE INTO PITTSBURGH . . . and you'll discover one of the friendliest and safest cities in the nation, with one of the least expensive parking rates of any major city.

But however you get here, you'll enjoy everything about Pittsburgh. Its tree-lined streets and walkable downtown. Its ethnic heritage. And its world-class art, entertainment, sporting events, and shopping with something for everyone, all year long.

L AUREL HIGHLANDS REGION

Covered bridges abound in Bedford County.

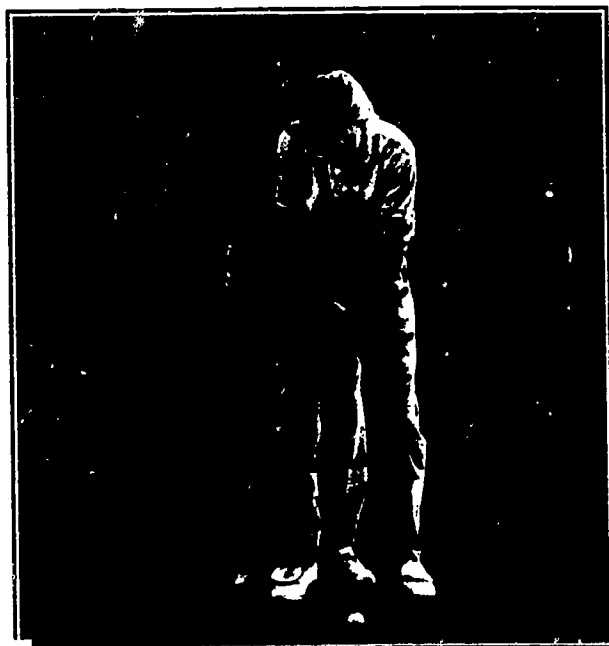

OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES ABOUND IN THE LAUREL HIGHLANDS REGION, WHERE THE ALLEGHENY MOUNTAINS BEGIN.

Lake Raystown is a favorite of boaters, hikers, bikers and nature lovers, and dozens of year-round resorts feature skiing, golfing and fishing.

But the region is also steeped in history. From the Whiskey Rebellion of 1794, the first revolt against a Federal tax in our country, to small mining and manufacturing towns.

Cities like Altoona, with its proud railroad heritage, and Johnstown, with its Flood Museum and Inclined Plane, pay tribute to a manufacturing tradition that is now being documented by the Southwestern Pennsylvania Heritage Preservation Commission. Dozens of sites and structures along the Path of Progress Heritage Route commemorate the legacy of miners, railroaders and steelworkers. Railroaders are drawn to the spectacular Horseshoe Curve, which has allowed trains to cross the Allegheny Mountains since 1854.

Enjoy a cool waterfall or a challenging round of golf.

Horseshoe Curve

Laurel Highlands' man-made wonders.

171

Battlefields and forts like Bushy Run, Fort Necessity, Fort Ligonier and Fort Roberdeau serve as reminders of the French and Indian War and territorial conquests that pushed America's frontier westward. Old Bedford Village is an authentically reconstructed pioneer town depicting the 1790's with frontier townspeople, shops and craftsmen.

Architectural history is also a part of this beautiful corner of the state, where you'll find Frank Lloyd Wright's "Fallingwater," a remarkable house built over a rushing mountain waterfall.

Living monuments to America's heritage combined with spectacular outdoor recreation make the Laurel Highlands Region fun for every family.

antiquing, the underground world of Lincoln Caverns, or visit Fallingwater,
a Frank Lloyd
Wright masterpiece.*

Everything under the sun...

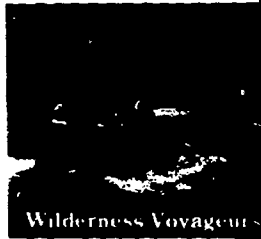

If you want to give your family the earth, sun, stars, and more... then come to the Laurel Highlands of Southwestern Pennsylvania!

Here you will find that the five county Laurel Highlands region offers family fun every season of the year! From the adventures of whitewater rafting and skiing, to learning the folk arts at lively festivals and exploring the sites that George Washington once roamed, this area is known for pleasing all who decide to visit.

If you're looking for thrills, and possibly spills, than take a ride on the Youghiogheny River through Ohiopyle State Park. Several outfitters can take you on your journey. Wilderness Voyageurs, 800-272-4141, offers guided and unguided raft and duckie trips. Laurel Highlands River Tours offers family tours and advanced rafting. Discounts are available but you must call 800-4-RAFTIN. Expertly guided raft trips are provided by Mountain Streams & Trails Outfitters, 800-245-4090. Safety is stressed, and the levels run from mild to wild!

For an adventurous ride on more solid ground, strap on the skis and head to the mountains of fun at Seven Springs (814-352-7777), Pennsylvania's largest year-round resort. In addition to skiing, Seven Springs offers dozens of recreational activities, an 18 hole golf course, convention facilities, lodging, restaurants, and lounges. Or, try

Wilderness Voyageurs

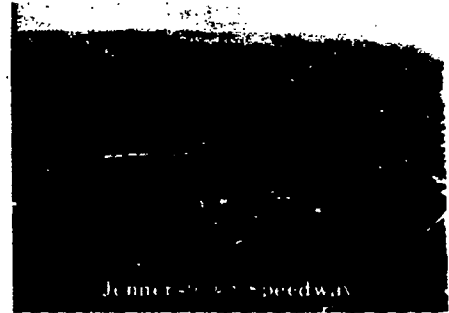

Laurel Highlands River Tours

Hidden Valley's 17 slopes and trails. This classic mountain resort offers deluxe accommodations as well as, IACC approved conference facilities, 18 hole mountaintop golf course and other recreational activities. For information call 814-443-6454, reservations can be made at 800-458-0175. For information on skiing and other winter fun in the Laurel Highlands, call 1-800-925-SNOW.

Hidden Valley

Jennerstown Speedway

With so much to do in one area, your heart may begin to spin! At the Jennerstown

Speedway (814-629-6677) you get so close to the action, you think that you're along for the ride! NASCAR racing is featured under the starlit sky Saturday nights, May through September, on a beautiful half mile, asphalt track. If you decide that you want to try your hand at racing, zip over to the Caddie Shak (412-593-7400). Try the Slick 8-Track, Indy-style Go Karts, Bumper Boats, and more! Whatever your age, you're never too old to enjoy the ultimate family fun found here.

When the day does draw to a close and you need a place to relax and unwind, check into one of the area's fine hotels or inns. Make your reservations at either the Sheraton Inn Greensburg, 412-836-6060, a full service Inn featuring fine dining, indoor pool, golf, and entertainment; or at the conveniently located Super 8 Motel in Greensburg with comfortable, affordable lodging, 412-838-8080. Or choose the Ramada Inn at Historic Ligonier (412-238-9545), located in the heart of the Laurel Highlands in the quaint village of Ligonier. Explore our streets, lined with interesting antique shops, cozy restaurants and lounges, and friendly people eager to share the area's treasures with you.

All year 'round!

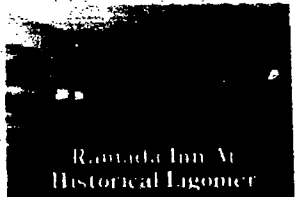

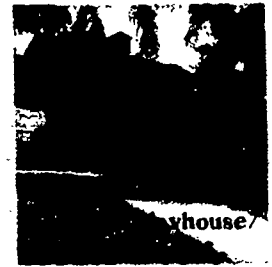

Designed by Frank Lloyd Wright and considered one of the masterpieces of the 20th century.

Fallingwater, is located between Mill Run and Ohiopyle. Call 412-329-8501 to schedule a tour of this spectacularly built home over the falls.

Battlefields and historic points of interest abound in the Laurel Highlands. Many of our visitors like to spend a day driving along Route 40, exploring its many sites. The Summit Inn Resort (412-438-8594) is one of many possibilities found along the National Road. This scenic mountaintop resort offers charming hospitality for vacationers, banquets, and conventions at affordable prices. The Summit Inn Resort also offers a mountaintop golf course.

Other courses can be found at Seven Springs, Hidden Valley, and the Sheraton Inn Greensburg. According to native, Arnold Palmer, the Laurel Highlands offers "some of the finest courses in the country".

Laurel Highlands cultural activities include symphony concerts, art galleries, and professional and amateur theater of the highest quality.

One such venue is Streets of Gold (800-432-4782 or 412-430-GOLD) which recreates Pennsylvania's coal and emigrant heritage in exciting new play. Another is the Mountain Playhouse, western Pennsylvania's premier professional summer theater, located next to Green Gables Restaurant. Call 814-629-9201 for ticket information.

At the Laurel Highlands, we give you sunny days and crisp mountain air to explore our sites. And, we don't desert you once the sun falls below the horizon. This is when we light up the sky with millions of twinkling stars and a beautiful moon to guide you on your next Laurel Highlands adventure!

HERSHEY/DUTCH COUNTRY REGION

The rolling hills of Lancaster County are home to the Amish.

From the Renaissance Faire to Hersheypark, Pennsylvania is full of characters!

THE HERSHEY/DUTCH COUNTRY REGION IS A LAND WHERE WAR AND PEACE LIVE SIDE BY SIDE IN TIMELESS BEAUTY.

Old Order Amish and Mennonites, who settled in Lancaster and Lebanon counties more than a century ago, keep alive age-old traditions.

In sharp contrast to this tranquility stands Gettysburg National Park, a memorial to America's most significant battle. Here once-quiet farmland exploded with musket fire and cannon blasts that shook an entire nation.

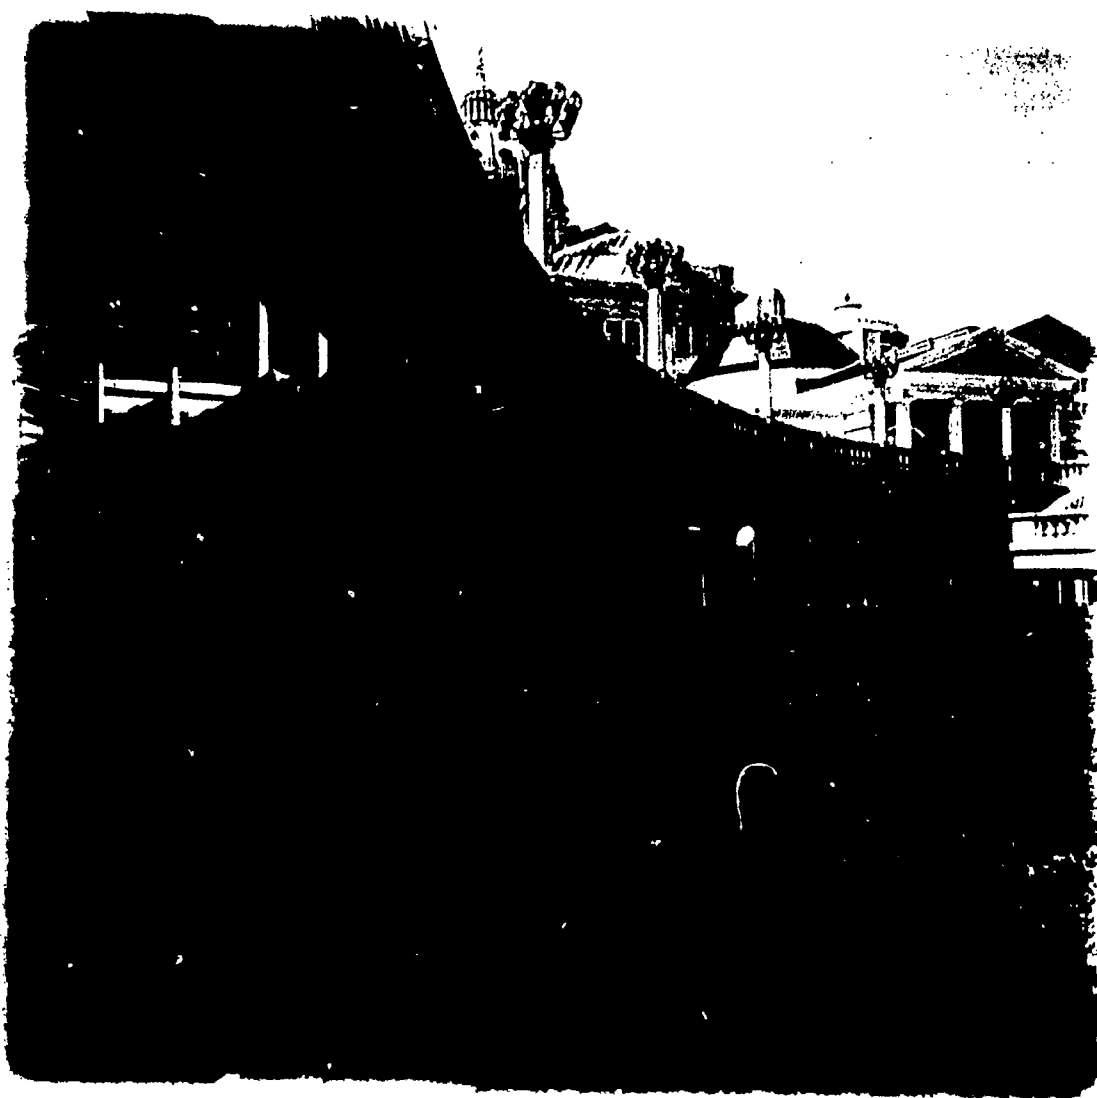

Adams County was the home of President Eisenhower; his farm is a national historic site. Historic landmarks pepper the scenic Cumberland Valley. Chambersburg was the only northern town burned by Confederate forces.

The breathtaking capitol in Harrisburg is an architectural wonder.

From Civil War reenactments to the simple life of the Amish, the past is preserved in Pennsylvania.

Carlisle is the home of the U.S. Army War College. York served briefly as the nation's capital. President James Buchanan's early law offices are preserved in the Stoy Museum in Lebanon, and his gracious home Wheatland is located in Lancaster.

Along the stately Susquehanna River is Harrisburg, Pennsylvania's state capital. Don't miss the striking Capitol building, the Pennsylvania State Museum, or the wealth of riverfront excitement.

For visitors who want to escape the past and find pleasure in the present, the world-famous Reading outlets in Berks County beckon with bargains. If you're looking for a sweet treat, explore Chocolatetown, U.S.A. (otherwise known as Hershey, PA), with its amusement park, resorts and colorful gardens.

Hershey/Dutch Country's rich history and delightful contemporary attractions make it a region suited to any family.

PHILADELPHIA AND ITS COUNTRYSIDE

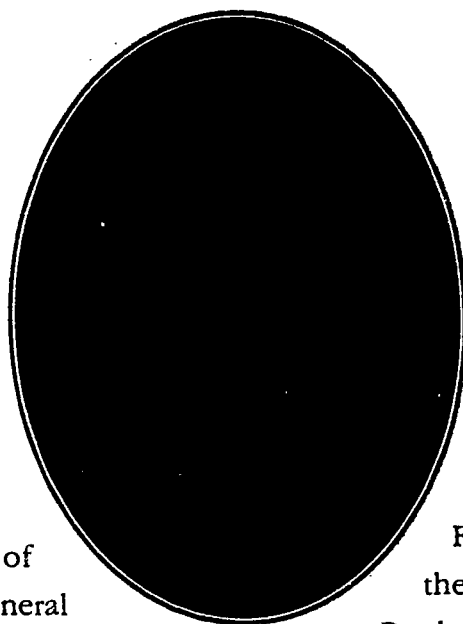

Philadelphía's dazzling at sunset!

THE CITY AND ITS COUNTRYSIDE ARE THE PERFECT BLEND OF PAST AND PRESENT, GLEAMING SKYSCRAPERS AND STONE FARMHOUSES, OLD WORLD CHARM AND SOPHISTICATED NIGHTLIFE.

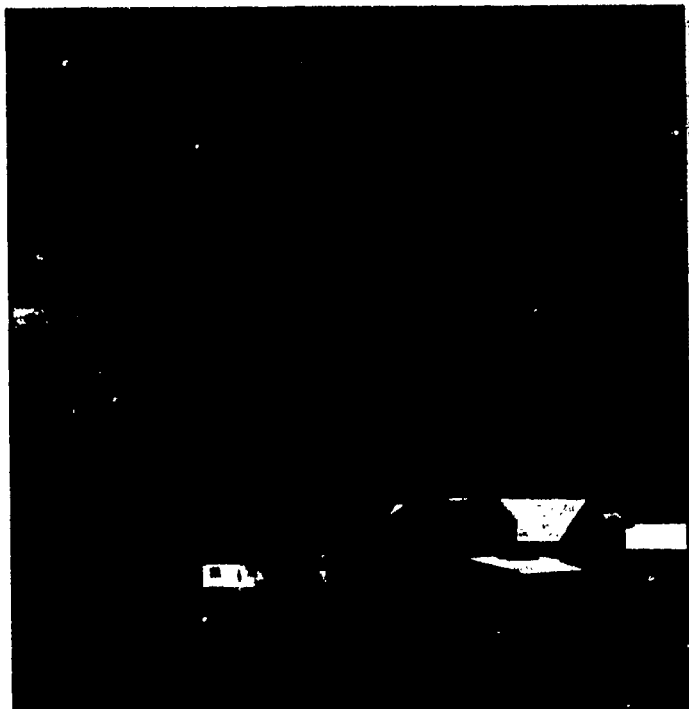

Trace the footsteps of Revolutionary War soldiers at General Lafayette's Brandywine command post near Chadds Ford and Washington's Headquarters at Valley Forge National Historical Park. Rustic cabins and park rangers in period dress bring that bitter winter to life. In Philadelphia, Pennsylvania's largest city, you'll find America's most historic square mile. The Liberty Bell

Benjamin Franklin - politician, scientist, printer and inventor.

Pavilion, Independence Hall, Betsy Ross House, Franklin Court and the Second National Bank are all within walking distance.

Contemporary Philadelphia sizzles with live theater, high fashion shopping, renowned restaurants and nonstop professional sports—the Flyers, Phillies, Sixers, Eagles and Wings. The new Pennsylvania Convention Center, the second largest in the Northeast, attracts visitors from all over the globe.

Rolling hills and horse farms abound in pastoral Chester County.

Longwood Gardens is blooming with beauty year-round!

The Betsy Ross House, birthplace ²³¹ of the Stars and Stripes.

A Monument to African-Americans who died fighting for America's independence.

Other contrasts in the area include the Lehigh Valley, where the ethnic settlements in Allentown, Bethlehem and Easton celebrate popular festivals like Das Awkscht, Musikfest and the Christmas City Fair. The artists' colony in New Hope, Bucks County, is always festive, and Longwood Gardens in the Brandywine Valley is internationally known for its beauty.

Baby boomers and their children delight in Bucks County's Sesame Place, where they can float down "Big Bird's Rambling River" in inner tubes. Dorney Park and Wildwater Kingdom feature over 100 rides and attractions, including the tallest wooden roller coaster in the world.

For past and present, treat your family to a perfect stay in Philadelphia And Its Countryside.

The nation's first Zoo is also one of the nation's best!

A splashing good time at Dorney Park and Wildwater Kingdom.

NOW THAT'S ENTERTAINMENT

Entertainment and the lively arts are easy to find: Experience the sights and sounds of Las Vegas-style reviews, touring Broadway shows and community theater, or headline musical performers at our many exciting night stops and theaters.

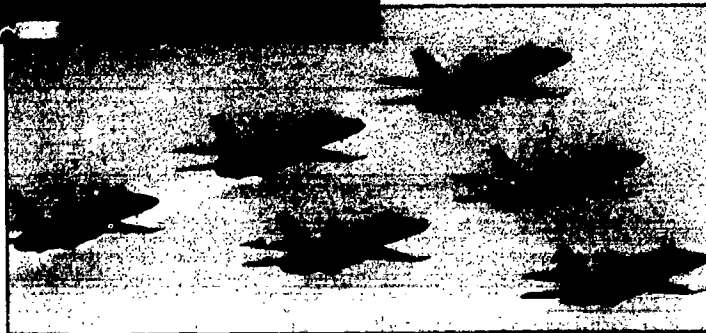

STAY A WHILE

There's so much to do here, you'll want to stay a while: After a busy day of sight-seeing, come home to a luxury hotel, a cozy bed and breakfast, a quaint country inn or an economy lodge. Our wide variety of affordable accommodations will give you a chance to relax while planning your next exciting day in the Valley Forge area.

TABLE FOR 2, 3, 4....

No matter who or how many you're dining with, there's food for everyone's taste: Feast on world-class international cuisine, ethnic variety, fast-food, and local flavors from Pennsylvania Dutch Shoo-fly Pie to Philly Cheesesteaks.

Make Vacation History

Make your vacation a historical one: See how people lived in Pennsylvania as far back as two centuries ago when you visit living history sites like Valley Forge National Historical Park and the Peter Wentz Farmstead. Or, visit unique, novel museums like Streitwieser Historical Trumpet Museum, the Glencairn Museum and Mill Grove.

HIGH-FLYING FUN

There's always something going on: Enjoy amazing stunt and fighter planes at an air show; listen to some good old-fashioned folk music at a festival; take in a relaxing crafts show or workshop and experience the local flavor of parades, fairs and civic celebrations throughout the year.

PHILADELPHIA

WELCOME ★ AMERICA!

June 29 - July 4, 1994

America's best birthday bash!

For six great days this summer, Philadelphia reopens its gates to the nation's capital. Celebrate the holiday with fireworks, championship baseball, free concerts, riverside festivals and the presentation of the Philadelphia Liberty Medal.

It all starts June 29 with free admission to the world class art and science museums along the Benjamin Franklin Parkway. Then thru to a dazzling Mariners parade, free concerts, fireworks throughout the weekend and a stirring patriotic ceremony at Independence National Historical Park on our nation's birthday — July 4.

There's still plenty of room left at our historical inns and first-class hotels.

OCONO MOUNTAINS REGION

The Poconos are perfect for a romantic weekend getaway!

Lackawanna County is the home to the Red Barons.

Pocono International Raceway offers non-stop excitement!

THE POCONO MOUNTAINS REGION IS A YEAR-ROUND PLAYGROUND OFFERING BREATHTAKING SCENERY AND ALMOST UNLIMITED OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES.

Fishing, swimming, boating, hiking, world-famous auto racing and professional baseball (the Scranton Red Barons are a Phillies AAA club) all attract visitors.

Cities like Scranton and Wilkes-Barre preserve America's industrial heritage. Anthracite coal was first mined here, and tours of the Lackawanna Coal Mine and Ashland's Pioneer Tunnel Coal Mine give visitors a firsthand look at "the coal-mining industry."

A breathtaking Wilkes-Barre vista.

The beautiful Pocono Mountains boast some of the finest skiing anywhere.

This is a region steeped in railroad lore. Scranton's Steamtown National Historic Site features working steam engines, tours and excursions.

As far back as 1815, vacationers journeyed to the Pocono Mountain counties of Carbon, Wayne, Monroe and Pike. Charming Victorian-era towns like Jim Thorpe are a cherished reminder of another America.

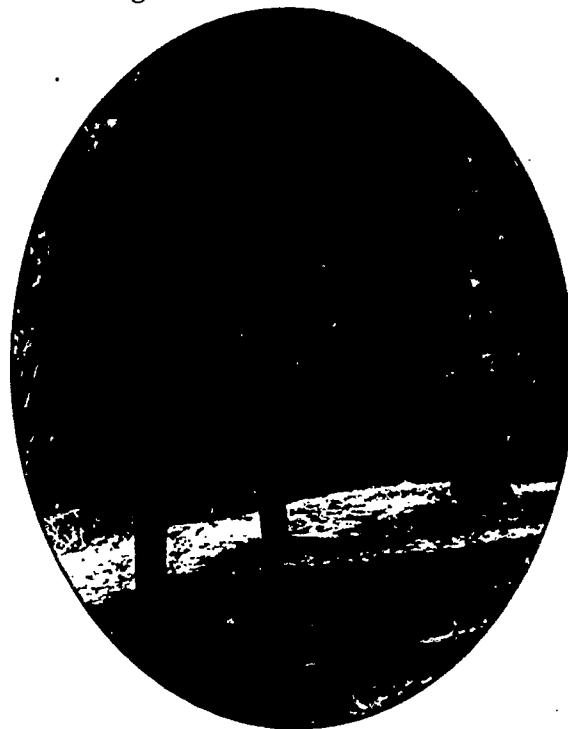

The Appalachian Trail, America's first scenic trail, enters Pennsylvania from the north at the Delaware Water Gap. And the Loyalsock Trail, a demanding wilderness passage, follows mountain peaks with average elevations from 1,700 to 1,900 feet.

No shad fisherman will want to miss a quiet spring morning along the Delaware River as the shad begin spawning upriver from Delaware Bay.

Enjoy canoeing, golfing or just taking in the scenery.

And when the snow falls, the region becomes a skiing mecca promising exhilarating slopes for beginners and experts. Ice fishing, snowmobiling, skating, and tobogganing all attract winter sports enthusiasts.

Four seasons of fun are waiting in the Pocono Mountains Region.

In Spring, Summer, Fall or Winter

Springtime fills the Poconos with blossoming flowers and blooming activity! Enjoy whitewater rafting, fishing, hiking, canoeing, tennis and the year's first round of golf. Or thrill to major auto racing, old-fashioned scenic train rides, bargain-packed shopping outlets and the Poconos annual Laurel Blossom Festival.

For cool and refreshing Summer fun, our crystal clear rivers and lakes, including Lake Wallenpaupack, one of Pennsylvania's largest lakes, offer unsurpassed sailing, boating, waterskiing and swimming. The Poconos come alive with family fun parks, summer theater, museums, country fairs, antique shops and so much more!

Savor Fall's breathtaking foliage in the Poconos with a leisurely horseback ride, afternoon stroll, or a mountain biking adventure. Take a long soak in a heart-shaped tub for two. Or sample one of our many Oktoberfests and festivals!

For fabulous downhill and cross-country skiing, ice skating, snowmobiling and tobogganing the Poconos is the perfect Winter Wonderland. And when it comes to holiday magic, there's no better place to enjoy yuletide displays, events and entertainment, and...the warmth of a cozy fireplace...all season long!

Make the Pocono Mountains of Pennsylvania, including Carbon, Wayne, Pike and Monroe Counties, your vacationland, getaway spot or meeting place - every season of the year. With accommodations for every taste and budget and everything to see and do, the Poconos are truly the place to get away to it all!

Williamsport is where Little League Baseball began.

THE SUSQUEHANNA RIVER HAS BEEN CALLED THE "CURRIER AND IVES" OF RIVERS BY MANY ARTISTS.

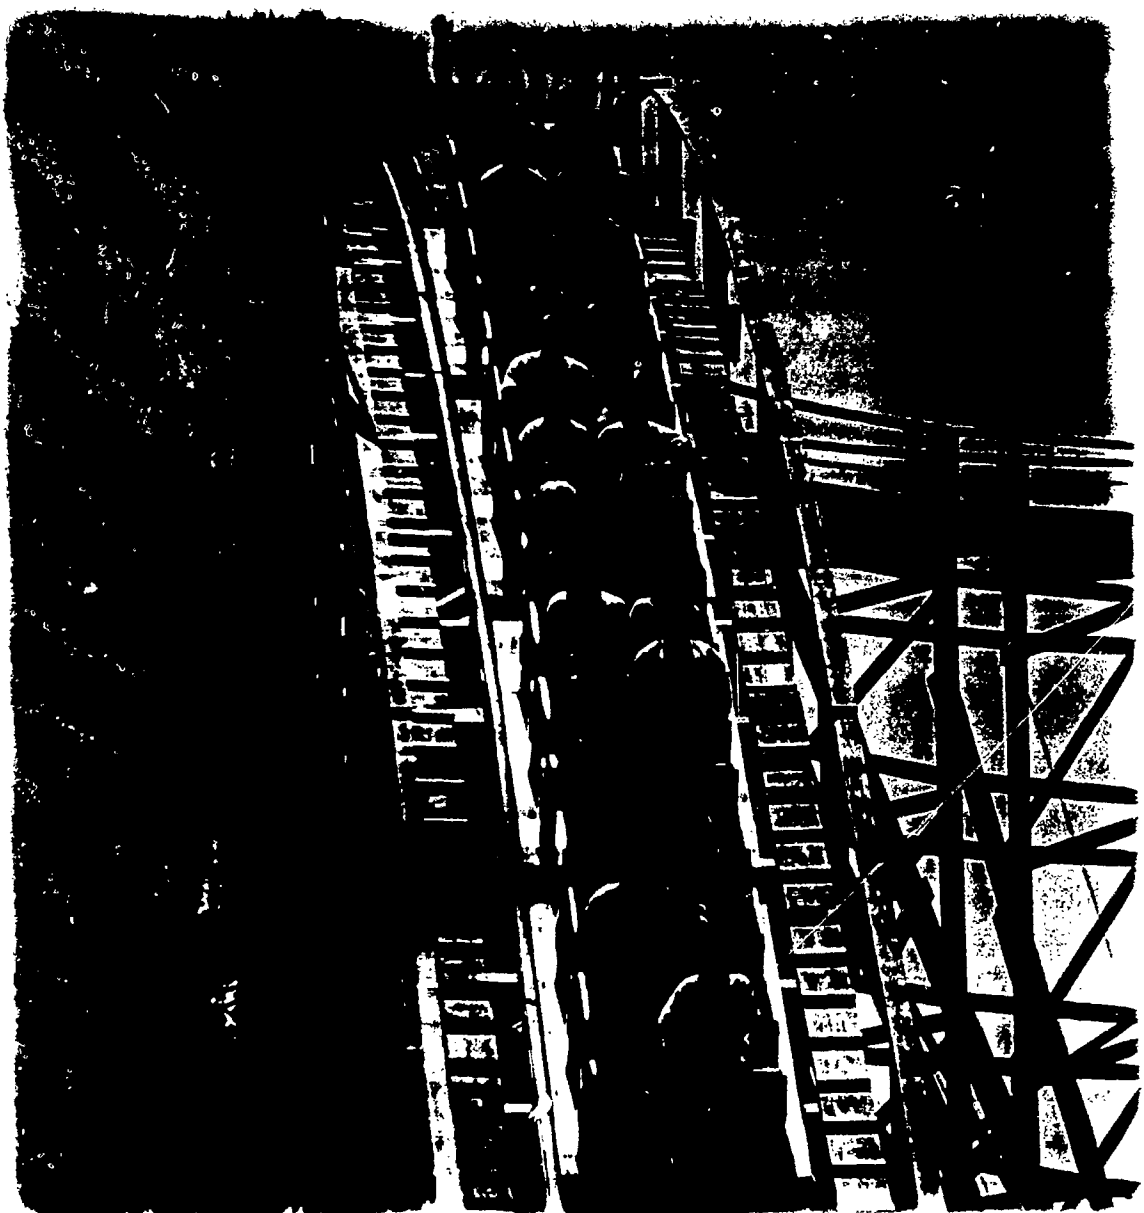

You'll find traditional river towns like Lock Haven, Selinsgrove and Lewisburg. Covered bridges dot the river's tributaries, and paddlewheeled riverboats like the Hiawatha in Williamsport still transport visitors in high style. Bloomsburg is a regional center for antique shopping and the arts.

The river's rich bottom lands are farmed by Old Order Amish and Mennonites. In the northern part of the region, Clinton County invites you to hike, canoe, hunt, snowmobile and ski in the unspoiled outdoors.

The spectacular Lock Haven Bridge.

Boal Mansion in Boalsburg began in 1789 and includes the Columbus Chapel, which belonged to Christopher Columbus' family in Spain and contains his family heirlooms dating back to the 1400s.

You'll also find our past at the Northumberland County home of Joseph Priestly, the 18th century theologian who discovered oxygen. And the Pennsylvania Military Museum in Centre County honors Pennsylvania's servicemen and women.

This region is home to the Nittany Lions of The Pennsylvania State University and hosts one of the state's largest arts festivals in State College. And Williamsport is the birthplace of Little League baseball.

Dazzling scenery, living history, contemporary arts and outdoor recreation. You'll find them all in the Valleys of the Susquehanna.

A LLEGHENY NATIONAL FOREST REGION

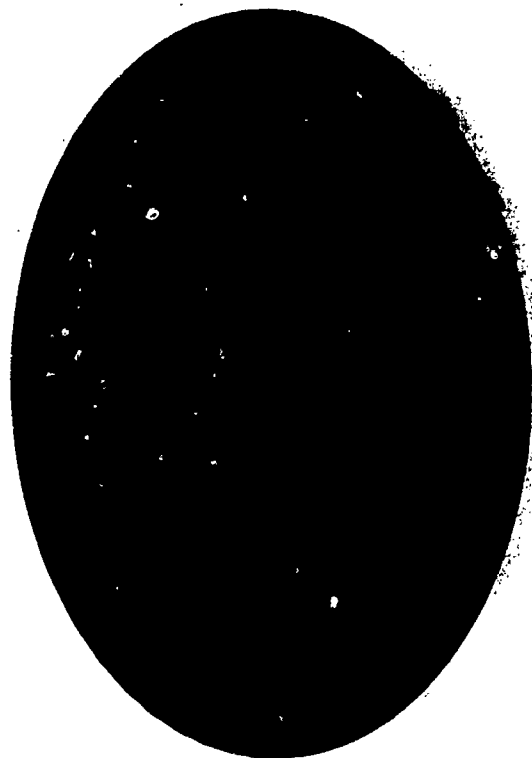

This region is home to the graceful elk & deer.

PENNSYLVANIA'S MOST COMPELLING BEAUTY GRACES THE ALLEGHENY NATIONAL FOREST REGION, WHERE OUTDOOR RECREATION IS UNMATCHED.

The rugged terrain of the Allegheny National Forest, for which the region is named, is dense with tall, pristine pines. The spring countryside blooms with wild rhododendron, dogwood and Mountain Laurel, the state flower. The Forest's dazzling autumn leaves are set against a flawless blue sky.

A half-million acres of unspoiled forest are criss-crossed by miles of trails for hikers of all ages and all skills. There are more than 300 miles of snowmobiling trails and 44 miles of cross-country skiing trails.

This region is filled with more wild game than any other part of Pennsylvania: black bear, whitetail deer, turkey, grouse, pheasant and much more. You'll find 270,000 acres of state game land, more than 14,000 in Clarion County alone.

*Fishing, ice skating and more.
There's never a dull moment!*

*Braving the white waters is truly

297

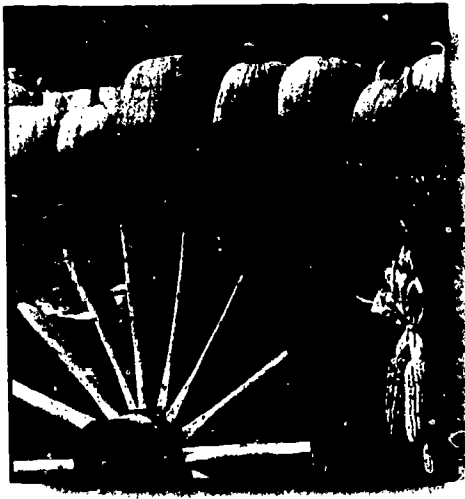

Trout fishermen will want to cast their lines along Pine and Tionesta creeks, and the Pennsylvania record muskie was caught at Kinzua Dam in Warren County, which also boasts outstanding walleye and trout fishing.

The natural beauty of the region stretches east across the Magic Forest in Clearfield, Clarion and Jefferson counties. There's spectacular scenery along the Grand Army of the Republic Highway, Route 6, through Warren, McKean, Potter and Tioga counties. And the peaks and valleys of the Pennsylvania Grand Canyon, 300,000 acres of forest land, include a 1,000-foot drop at Pine Creek in Tioga County.

Pennsylvania's most famous resident makes his home in the Allegheny National Forest Region. If you're visiting in early February, you may catch sight of Punxsutawney Phil, our weather-predicting groundhog, as he looks for his shadow.

A family dedicated to the great outdoors will find none greater than the Allegheny National Forest Region.

LAKE ERIE REGION

VISITORS CALL THIS REGION "ERIESISTIBLE." SO IS THE GREAT LAKE THAT IS THE CENTERPIECE OF RECREATIONAL ACTIVITY.

A sunset sail along Lake Erie takes your family past two contrasting worlds: the modern Erie skyline and the nearly 200-year-old warship, the Brig Niagara, Commodore Perry's victorious flagship from the War of 1812. The Niagara has been renovated and is open to visitors.

Just minutes from the city of Erie is Presque Isle State Park, a wildlife refuge that's a haven for deer, squirrels, raccoons, rabbits—and visitors. Lake Erie's fresh waters support more than 20 species of fish, including brown trout, bass, northern pike, chinook and perch. Bicycling along the Seaway Trail is especially beautiful during the fall.

Crawford County boasts the region's largest man-made lake, Pymatuning, and largest and deepest natural lake, Conneaut. Both are summer magnets for boaters, fishermen, swimmers and sunners. In winter, ice skaters and ice fishermen cover the lakes as cross-country skiers travel around them.

The region's rich soil makes it prime farmland. The largest stretch of Concord grapes east of the Mississippi is harvested by the region's prize-winning wineries. A tour and a taste will let you sample the delicious results.

The Erie Region has a past rooted in our industrial heritage, too. Nearly 150 years ago, Edwin Drake drilled America's first oil well near Titusville and hit oil just 69 feet down.

Four seasons of the year, the Lake Erie Region offers water sports, history and adventure for your family's vacation.

Cross country skiing is not only great exercise, but a great way to see the sights!

Mother Nature has blessed Pennsylvania with an abundance of wildlife.

AUTUMN IN PENNSYLVANIA

PENNSYLVANIA HAS AN ASTONISHING 127 VARIETIES OF TREES. AND IN THE FALL, EACH TURNS A DIFFERENT SHADE OF SPECTACULAR.

You can choose to view this splendid show on foot, traveling over scenic hiking trails in state parks or the Allegheny National Forest. You can admire nature's handiwork on two wheels, by cycling through one of the three national Bikecentennial Trails that wind through portions of Pennsylvania. Or you can drive through mountains, hills or miles of valleys, all alive with brilliant color.

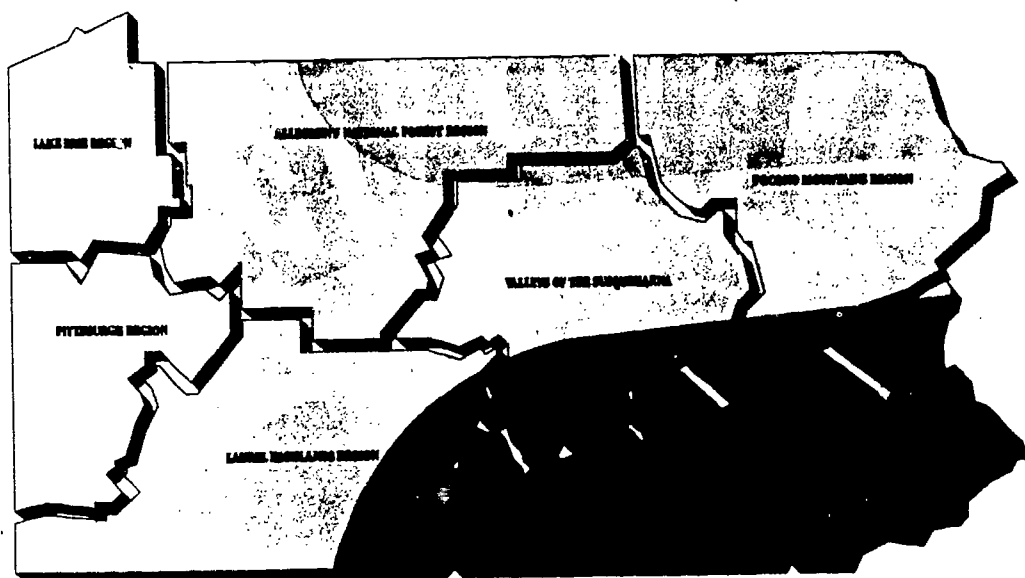

PENNSYLVANIA'S FOLIAGE BANDS

The tri-colored map on this page represents the three zones of foliage that peak at different times throughout the season. These are guidelines only; Mother Nature keeps her own schedule! But whenever you come to Pennsylvania this fall, you're sure to see someplace beautiful.

CALL FOR MORE INFORMATION

We have a special Pennsylvania Fall Foliage hotline that's updated weekly. We'll tell you which autumn leaves are turning and where, when they're expected to peak, and give you a brief description of the foliage in the northern, central and southern zones indicated on the map above. You can start calling the hotline mid-September. Reports will be available through mid November and are updated every Wednesday.

Don't Hibernate CELEBRATE!

The crystalline brilliance of the sun. The heart-pounding anticipation. The adrenaline surge of exhilaration. It couldn't be anything but skiing. Even if you've never skied before, make this the winter you challenge the Pennsylvania slopes. Our resorts are scattered throughout the state, so your skiing vacation is as close as you want it to be. Close enough for a mid-week time-out from a hard week's work. Close enough to drive up for a thrilling evening of night skiing. And close enough for you to ski as often as you want, all winter long. With some help from our snow-making machines, Pennsylvania's mountains are always covered in white. Our ski resorts are easily accessible by major highways, so the round trip is quick and comfortable. And if your plans include an overnight stay, you can choose deluxe resorts or Bed & Breakfasts, fine motels or condominiums...all within minutes of the lift.

Skiing is a family affair in Pennsylvania for two reasons: It's fun and affordable. You'll see everyone from rank novices to world-class experts. Discounts are readily available on group lessons, weekday skiing, night skiing, ski packages including lodging, and from ski groups and clubs. Equipment is available for rent at almost every resort. Many ski areas offer beginner's packages that include equipment, lift tickets and lessons, and are designed to attract families just like yours. A few exhilarating lessons, and you'll be able to tackle 50% of the slopes in Pennsylvania, with an eye toward the day you'll conquer those Black Diamond expert slopes.

If you're already an experienced skier looking for the thrill of a big mountain, many of our ski areas offer intermediate and expert runs. You can take long, leisurely trails or challenging, aggressive mogul runs. Whatever type of skiing appeals to you, you can find it in Pennsylvania. Skiing is more than just fun, it's a life-time sport. A confidence builder. And an activity that bonds families together.

It wouldn't be winter in Pennsylvania without a trip to the slopes. You've got to ski it to believe it.

MAPS, BROCHURES & MORE

AFRICAN-AMERICAN CULTURE

From jazz festivals to historic churches, stops on the underground railroad to museums featuring African-American crafts and textiles, Pennsylvania continues to play a leading role in the history and development of African-American culture.

■ For a free guide listing nearly 100 special events, sites and attractions, write to: African-American Cultural Guide, P.O. Box 2149, Warrendale, PA 15086.

AGRICULTURAL FAIRS

Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture invites you to visit any of the fairs throughout Pennsylvania this year and learn more about our agricultural heritage. We hope that you'll continue to make agricultural fairs a part of your annual family traditions and harvest a greater appreciation of the contributions made by this still vibrant part of Pennsylvania's economy and society.

■ For a copy of the Pennsylvania Fairs write to: Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, Attn: Agricultural Fair Program, 2301 North Cameron Street, Harrisburg, PA 17110-9408.

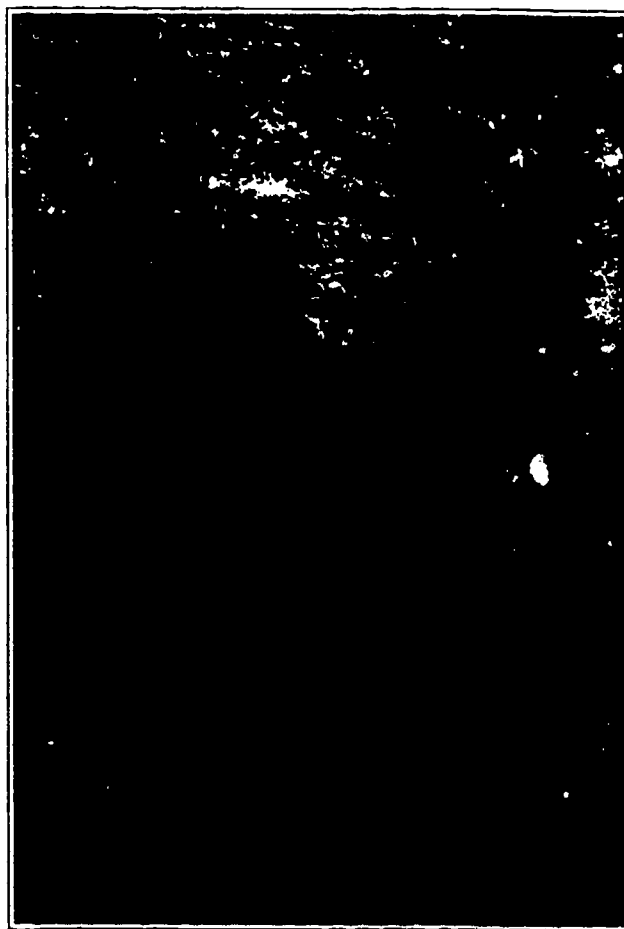

ALLEGHENY NATIONAL FOREST

The 516,000-acre Allegheny National Forest, the largest public wooded area in Pennsylvania, offers superb recreational opportunities. Eight thousand acres of wilderness are set aside for foot travel. The forest has more than 180 miles of trails perfect for hiking, and some mountain biking, over 40 miles of cross-country ski trails, over 300 miles of snowmobile trails, and almost 100 miles of ATV trails. Three reservoirs (Allegheny, Tionesta and East Branch) are suitable for fishing and boating. Three rivers (Allegheny, Clarion and Tionesta) offer canoeing opportunities: the Clarion is spectacular in the fall. The forest has seventeen campgrounds, six that can only be reached by boat or on foot, and opportunities for backwoods camping.

The Allegheny National Recreation Area, Tionesta Research Natural Area, Tionesta Scenic Area and Hearts Content Scenic Area offer the customer special opportunities in special places.

■ For more information, write or call Allegheny National Forest, P.O. Box 847, Warren, PA 16365, or call (814) 723-5150. TTY (814) 726-2710

ALL-TERRAIN VEHICLES

There are 149 miles of designated ATV trails on the Pennsylvania State Forest land open for use from Memorial Day weekend until September 24th. These trails are designated for beginning and intermediate riders. During the same time period, the Allegheny National Forest has 103 miles of trails open for ATVs. There are no ATV trails in state parks. Three of the trail systems on State Forest land re-open with a total of 74 miles for winter ATV riding from the day after antlerless deer season until April 1.

All ATVs used in Pennsylvania, except those operated exclusively on the property of the owner, must be titled and registered with the Department of Environmental Resources Snowmobile/ATV Unit listed below. Applications for title and registration are available from the Snowmobile/ATV Unit, ATV dealers and Forest District Offices. ATVs owned by non-residents that are properly registered in their home state are not required to be re-registered in Pennsylvania.

■ For maps and more information, call or write the Department of Environmental Resources, Snowmobile and ATV Unit, P.O. Box 8553, Harrisburg, PA 17105-8553, (717) 783-9227.

CAVES AND CAVERNS

Discover, explore, experience, enjoy Pennsylvania's nine show caves. Each cave is different from the other - for Nature seldom duplicates herself. Spectacular beauty and interesting histories fascinate visitors of all ages. All Pennsylvania show caves offer interpretive tours providing guests with a memorable and educational experience.

■ For a free guide to eight of Pennsylvania's show caves, write the Pennsylvania Caves Association, RR #1, Box 280, Huntingdon, PA 16652.

FARM VACATIONS

Rural Pennsylvania invites you to visit the member farms of the Pennsylvania Farm Vacation Association. The member farms feature a variety of locations, rates and accommodations. Facilities vary from farm to farm, as do seasonal activities and local tourist attractions.

■ For a copy of the "Pennsylvania Farm Vacation Directory," send a self-addressed, stamped business-size envelope to: Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, Attn: Farm Vacations, 2301 North Cameron Street, Harrisburg, PA 17110-9408.

FISHING

Pennsylvania is one of the premier fishing states in the East - and that's no fish story. Our thousands of lakes, rivers, ponds and streams have more than 25 kinds of game fish.

■ For information about fishing licenses and regulations, write the Pennsylvania Fish and Boat Commission, Publications Section, P.O. Box 67000, Harrisburg, PA 17106-7000. Or call (717) 657-4518 or 657-4519.

HIKING

Pennsylvania means "Penn's Woods," and with 58 percent of the Commonwealth covered in forest, it's not difficult to see how we came by that name. Most of the hundreds of miles of hiking trails allow you to walk in these woods, magnificent in any season. There's a trail in Pennsylvania to suit any hiker. Most are blazed with directional markings on rocks and trees. Sponsoring agencies can provide you with maps and guidebooks showing springs and camping areas.

■ For more information, contact the Department of Environmental Resources, Bureau of State Parks, Box 8551, Harrisburg, PA 17105-8551, 1-800-63-PARKS.

ICE FISHING

A new fishing license is required beginning January 1, 1994. You can obtain one from over 1,500 License Issuing Agencies in sporting goods stores throughout the state or at any regional headquarters of the Pennsylvania Fish and Boat Commission.

■ For a free brochure about ice fishing in Pennsylvania, send a stamped, self-addressed business envelope to: Pennsylvania Fish and Boat Commission, Publications Section, P.O. Box 67000, Harrisburg, PA 17106-7000.

INDUSTRIAL TOURS

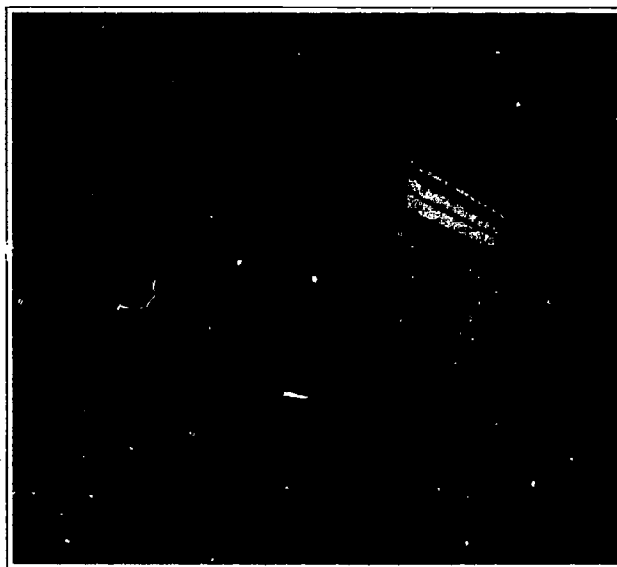

More than 70 Pennsylvania companies open their plants and factories to the public. You can learn how well-known products like Hershey's® Chocolate, Utz® potato chips, Seltzer's Lebanon Bologna, Pfaltzgraff® stoneware and Harley-Davidson® motorcycles are manufactured.

■ For more information and a list of tours, write the Pennsylvania Office of Travel Marketing, Industrial Tours, P.O. Box 2165, Warrendale, PA 15086.

PENNSYLVANIA BED & BREAKFAST DIRECTORY

From rustic farmhouses to grand mansions, Pennsylvania bed and breakfast establishments open their doors to welcome guests to the state. The Pennsylvania B & B Directory features more than 176 B&B's across the state with a wide range of facilities, rates and locations. This unique type of accommodation offers guests a chance to experience a home away from home during their stay in Pennsylvania.

■ Those interested in obtaining a copy of the Directory should send a self-addressed legal-size envelope with 52¢ postage to the Pennsylvania Travel Council B&B Directory, Dept. 931, 902 N. Second Street, Harrisburg, PA 17102.

PRIVATE CAMPGROUNDS

The members of the Pennsylvania Campground Owners Association (PCOA) operate more than 200 of the 495 quality campgrounds across the state. These well-maintained private facilities are geared toward families, and often include extras like pools, playgrounds and convenience stores. For a detailed 40 page directory, write to the PCOA, P.O. Box 5, New Tripoli, PA 18066-0005, or call (215) 767-5026.

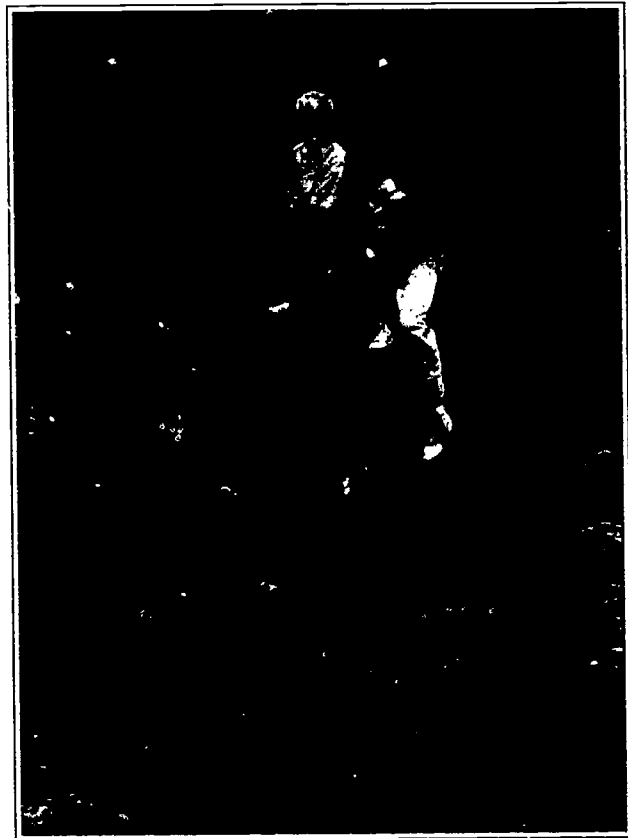

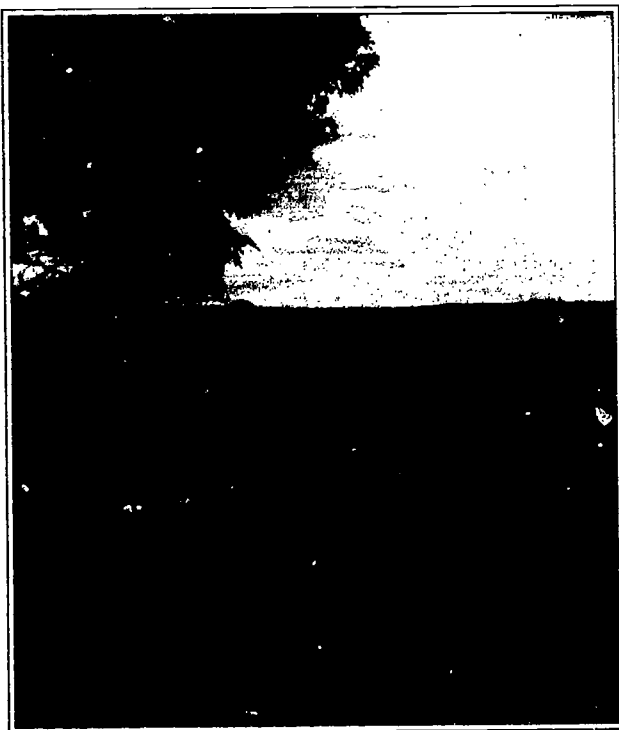

RURAL PENNSYLVANIA

Pennsylvania's pastoral rural counties offer countless options for the vacationer. Enjoy outdoor activities, explore quaint villages and historic sites, or just relax and take in the scenic beauty of the Pennsylvania countryside.

So when you're off the beaten path, you're on to something wonderful, because some of Pennsylvania's greatest treasures are tucked away in the lesser-known parts of our beautiful Commonwealth.

Pennsylvania boasts an impressive total of 114 State Parks, one of the largest systems in the country. These 277,000 lush acres are a paradise for sportsmen, campers, boaters, bikers, hikers or anyone seeking a scenic spot to spread a picnic lunch.

Fishermen are hooked on Pennsylvania, too. And with good reason: thousands of acres of lakes, rivers and streams drench the landscape here. What's the catch? Trout, walleye, pike, muskie and lots, lots more.

A wrong turn in Pennsylvania often turns out for the best. You may find yourself in one of our small towns, where life revolves around a bustling town square.

And chances are, you'll be in no hurry to find your way back. You'll want to poke around the antique and craft shops. Sample fresh cider at a farmer's market. Stroll around the town and chat with the locals.

Maybe you'll even spend the night, resting peacefully beneath a patchwork quilt on a big brass bed at a cozy country inn. You'll wake up to the aroma of fresh bread and cinnamon coffee. After breakfast on the sunny porch, you'll be on your way.

■ If you'd like to learn more about the wonders of Rural Pennsylvania, send for a free color brochure, full of attractions and activities in the parts of Pennsylvania you might not know yet. Write to: Rural Pennsylvania, P.O. Box 2150, Warrendale, PA 15086.

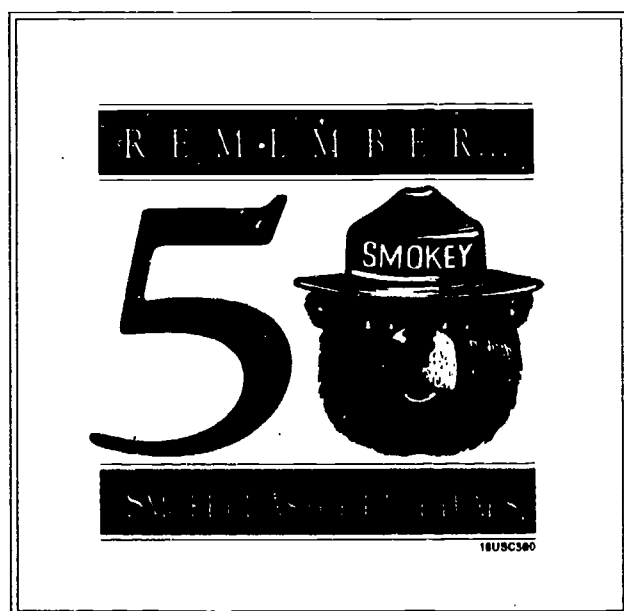

PUBLIC GOLF COURSES

There are hundreds of public golf courses in Pennsylvania, and a day spent on the links offers more than just a round of nine or 18. Many courses include restaurants, driving ranges and instruction programs for every member of the family - junior golfer to aspiring Arnold Palmer. Some facilities even have lodging, swimming pools and other recreational activities on site.

■ For a free copy of The 1994 Pennsylvania Golf Course Guide, send a stamped, self-addressed business envelope to Pennsylvania Golf Course Owners, 121 Narragansett Drive, McKeesport, PA 15135.

SMOKEY BEAR'S ANNIVERSARY

Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Resources, Bureau of Forestry, will commemorate the 50th Anniversary of Smokey Bear. The celebration begins in October 1993, and culminates with a big bash on August 9, 1994. We invite you to join in the anniversary celebration of the most famous forest fire prevention symbol in the world. Through a yearlong agenda of events and festivities, people like you are encouraged to help Smokey spread his fire prevention message.

■ For more information, contact the Department of Environmental Resources, Bureau of Forestry, Division of Forest Fire Protection, P.O. Box 8552, Harrisburg, PA 17105-8552, or call (717) 787-2925.

SNOWMOBILING

Snowmobiles are allowed on designated areas, roads and trails in state forests and state parks (approximately 2,800 miles) after the last day of antlerless deer season (approximately December 15) until April 1. On state game lands, snowmobiling is allowed from January 15 to April 1. There are also 340 miles of snowmobile trails in the Allegheny National Forest.

All snowmobiles used in Pennsylvania, except those used exclusively on the property of the owner, must be registered with the Snowmobile/ATV Unit listed below. Applications for registration are available from the Snowmobile/ATV Unit, snowmobile dealers, Forest District and State Park Offices. Snowmobiles owned by non-residents that are properly registered in their state are not required to be re-registered in Pennsylvania. The Snowmobile Trail Directory and trail maps also can be ordered from the Snowmobile/ATV Unit.

■ For more information, contact the Department of Environmental Resources, Snowmobile/ATV Unit, P.O. Box 8553, Harrisburg, PA 17105-8553, or call (717) 783-9227. To obtain regional trail condition reports during trail riding season, call (717) 787-5651. For more information about organized clubs and events, contact the Pennsylvania State Snowmobile Association, P.O. Box 81, Annville, PA 17003, or call (717) 867-5588.

STATE PARKS

The Pennsylvania State Park system stands 100 years strong and continues the tradition of providing excellent resources and facilities. State parks make ideal places to spend a family vacation or a quick get-a-way for fun and relaxation.

When you visit a state park, take in one of the many special events and festivities offered throughout the year. They're great opportunities for immersing yourself in the beauty of a park or experiencing something a bit out of the ordinary.

There's a state park within a 25-mile radius of every person in Pennsylvania. So wherever you are, you're never far from one of our 55 state park campgrounds and our more than 7,000 campsites.

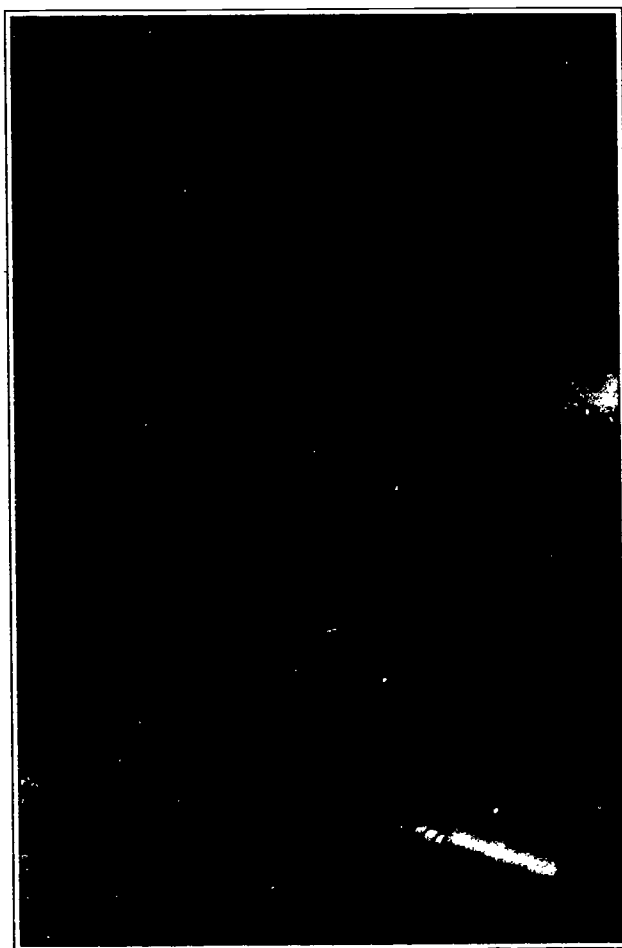

■ For more information, contact the Department of Environmental Resources, Bureau of State Parks, P.O. Box 8551, Harrisburg, PA 17105-8551, 1-800-63-PARKS. Ask for these free brochures: "Family Camping Reservations," "Cabins in Pennsylvania State Parks," "Organized Group Tenting/Organized Group Camps," "Picnic Pavilions," and "Pennsylvania State Parks Recreational Guide."

WINERIES

Pennsylvania vintners have been making wine commercially for almost two hundred years, so a visit to a winery will be a lesson in history as well as in spirits. There are 40 wineries spread across the state, each bottling excellent quality wine from Pennsylvania grown grapes.

■ For more information about winery locations, hours and tours, call the Pennsylvania Wine Association, (800) 322-7575 or write to 103 South Duke Street, Lancaster, PA 17602.

INFORMATION FOR TRAVELERS

ON THE ROAD

- The state speed limit is 55 mph, lower where posted.
- Children under four must use approved safety seats.
- Drivers and front seat passengers must use seat belts.
- We have 43 Roadside Rest Areas on our more than 1,200-mile Interstate System. Each has bath-rooms, vending machines, pet areas, phones and special baby-changing stations.

THE PENNSYLVANIA TURNPIKE

On the Turnpike you'll find 22 service plazas each including restaurants, service stations and picnic areas. Service stations accept MasterCard®, Visa®, American Express®, Discover®, Diners Club®, Carte Blanche® and Sunoco® credit cards.

Stranded drivers can use emergency call boxes to obtain vehicle, police, medical and accident assistance. The boxes are located at one (1) mile intervals along the entire length the Pennsylvania Turnpike. Motorists with Cellular phones can report accidents or request assistance by dialing "*11" ("star-one-one"). Toll-free telephone service is also available. Call 1-800-331-3414 in PA for roadway and weather conditions and 1-800-932-0586 for state police or emergency road service.

PENNSYLVANIA WINE & SPIRITS SHOPPES

There are approximately 675 state-operated Wine and Spirits Shoppes located throughout the Commonwealth. Visa and MasterCard are accepted. Beer can be purchased in package outlets and taverns, but not in grocery stores. In Pennsylvania, call 1-800-272-PLCB with your comments, concerns and suggestions. A reminder: Drinking and driving don't mix.

R.V. FACILITIES

- State parks with campsites have dumping facilities that are free for state park campers, $5.00 for unregistered Pennsylvania residents and $6.00 for unregistered non-residents.
- The following Turnpike service plazas have sanitary dumping facilities: Sideling Hill, Lawn (westbound only), Valley Forge (eastbound only).
- None of PennDOT's Roadside Rest areas have sanitary dumping facilities.

SALES TAX

The state sales tax is 6%, but happily for shoppers, clothing is exempt.

STATE LOTTERY

Anyone 18 or older can play the lottery. At 7400 convenient locations, players can choose from five on-line and a variety of instant ticket games. Free ticket winners are eligible for the Million Dollar Spin. Proceeds benefit older Pennsylvanians.

TOURISM PROMOTION AGENCIES

The Tourism Promotion Agencies (TPAs) listed below are sources of information about traveling in Pennsylvania. They provide literature about attractions, events, lodging, dining and places of interest in their counties or regions. TPAs can give you ideas for vacations, weekend trips, one-day excursions and afternoon outings.

Each of the state's 67 counties is represented by a TPA. Some serve one county; others serve two or more. They are listed here according to the state's eight regions. For a regional map, see the Table of Contents at the front of this guide. We encourage you to use our TPAs as your travel resource. If you'd like their assistance, just return the appropriate coupon in this booklet.
